ADMINISTRATION

History of A. M. A.

COLONEL CHARLES S. ROLLER, the founder of the Augusta MilitaryAcademy, was born May 8, 1839. He attended the country schools which were then in the county and prepared for the University of Virginia at Mossy Creek Academy which was located at Mossy Creek, Virginia. This school was superintended by Major Jed Hotchkiss, who later became famous during the Civil War. Professor Roller, as he was more commonly known, entered the University of Virginia in September of 1858 and took the Arts degree. Due to the War his class was graduated a year early in 1861. Professor Roller enlisted at the outbreak of the War in Colonel Stuart's Cavalry as a member of the 1st Virginia Regiment and he served in this organization until the last few months of the war when he was transferred to General Fitz-Hugh Lee's staff as a courier. Upon the surrender, there were a great many young men in the locality who, having fought in the War, had lost the opportunity to secure an education. Some of these men asked Professor Roller to found a day school in order that they might pursue their studies which had been dropped when the war broke out. Professor Roller associated himself with Professor Packer and in 1865 founded what was known as the Augusta Academy. It was a small, brick building and was located in the old church grove. About 1876 the name was changed to the Augusta Male Academy and in 1878 a main building was erected on the spot which is now the site of Major W. S. Robinson's home. In 1884 the name was changed again to the Augusta Military and Classical Academy and an "L" was added to the main structure. The year 1887 saw another step in expansion as two wings were added and fifty-five boarders were enrolled, eighteen of whom were from Texas. It is interesting to note that the game of football was first played at Augusta in this same year. From the year 1865 to the year 1890 the military feature was not considered important by the head of the school and therefore there was little time given to this. The only military formation was a short drill period in the afternoon and uniforms were not required to be worn except while on leave. In 1894 a frame gymnasium was erected and basketball, indoor baseball and gymnastics were indulged in. At the time of the Spanish American War, owing to the poor health of Professor Roller, the management and control of the school was taken by his two sons, Captain C. S. Roller, Jr., and Thomas J. Roller. By the year 1905 the enrollment had grown to eighty-eight and now it was made compulsory to wear the uniform at all times. In 1909 the present academic building was erected with the upper part of this building being used for a gymnasium for twenty years. On August 29, 1907, Professor Roller died. A memorial in his honor was dedicated in the presence of 300 alumni who gathered to pay last tribute to the founder of their alma mater. Gradually the enrollment increased and in 1915 ground for the new barracks was broken. Upon the outbreak of the World War a great many of the single faculty members were allowed to resign so that they might volunteer for duty overseas. As this left a shortage of instructors the graduating class took over the teaching of the junior departments. A. M. A. had over 500 alumni overseas and of these nine gave their lives for the cause. The R. O. T. C. department was inaugurated in 1918 with Lieut. George Lockhart as the head officer. Lieutenant Lockhart served in this capacity until 1922 when he was succeeded by Lieutenant John Sandlin who, in turn, was succeeded by Lieutenant M. S. Chester. In 1930 Lieutenant Thomas Brinkley was detailed from West Point as the P. M. S. and T., in which capacity he is now serving. In 1919 the C. W. system, by which a boy may work his way through school, was brought into operation with Robert Heaston, a veteran of the World War, with the Marines, as the first commanding officer of the C. W. Company.

MAJOR C. S. ROLLER, JR.

The Co-Principals of A. M. A.

Colonel Thomas J. Roller and Major C. S. Roller, Jr., the co-principals of Augusta, took over the management and control of the school upon the death of their father, Professor C. S. Roller, the founder.

With devotion to their school and its work, they have labored consistently, and building upon the sturdy foundations of their father, they have achieved success far beyond their early hopes.

With a clear, penetrating vision, they look far into the future and are able to cope with any situation that may arise. One cannot come in contact with them without being impressed by their enthusiasm and vigor. They take a fatherly interest in their cadets, and no matter what the project may be, they are always willing to listen and back us. In the class room, in barracks, or on the athletic field, they have taught us co-operation, and they are willing to come more than half way. Such is the measure of their achievements.

CLASSES

First Class History

IT WOULD be an impossibility to sum up all of the happenings of our years within these walls, but it would be harder still to express our regret in leaving. The countless incidents and class friendships are too numerous on which to devote much time, but can a class history be composed of anything but the latter?

In the fall of 1927, we first put on our uniforms, though we didn't realize at the time what we were going into. Our trials and ordeals seemed unbearable—running errands, finning out, assuming the angle, all of these things made our meek existence miserable.

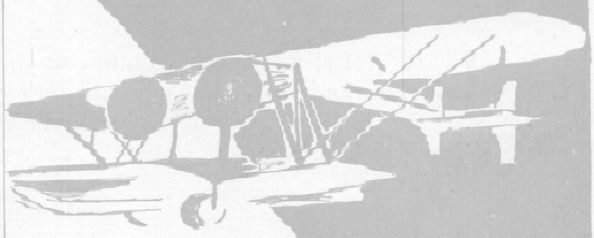

The following year many of us returned to carry on the traditions of '31, although a few of our pals failed to come back and share our joy in being "Old Men." What a kick we got out of making life unpleasant for the new cadets and how thrilled many of us were when we blossomed forth in chevrons. Many won fame in the literary and academic departments, while some of our classmates' names were added to the roster of the monogram club. Our ability along military lines was not lacking, as can be seen by the fact that we greatly helped in getting the Honor School rating.

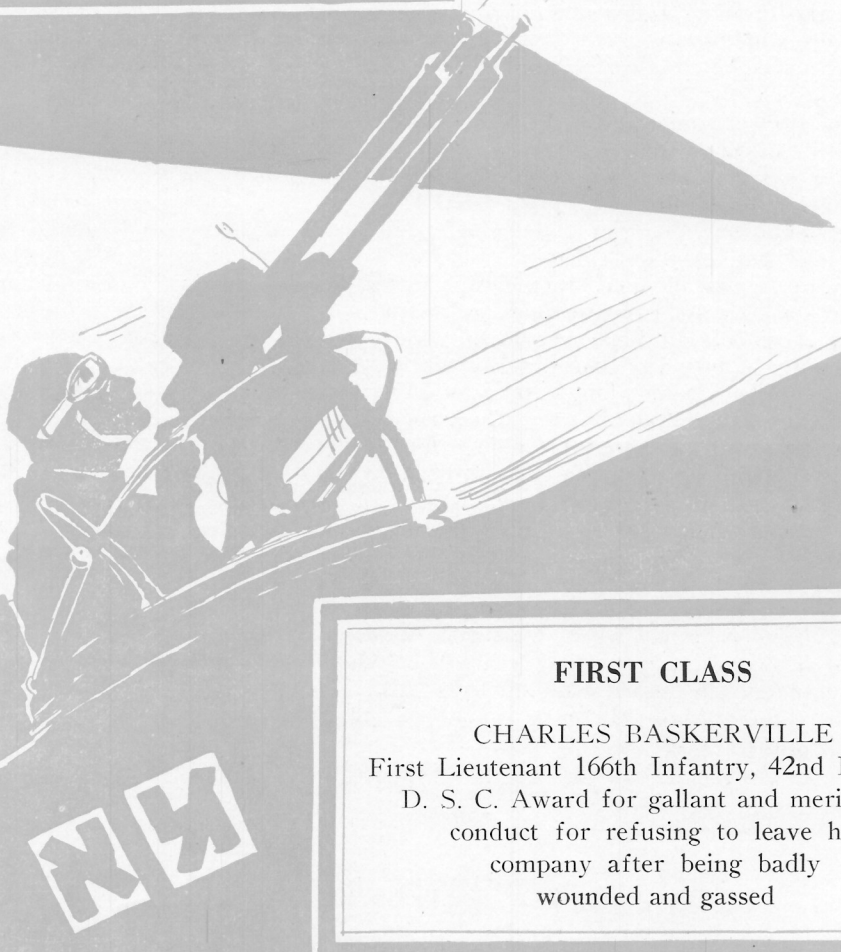

Some tried to make up for lost time in pleasure by means of throwing bombs and creating unnecessary disturbances which proved costly to the corps as a whole, but this was soon done away with. Nine short months found us home again, ready for a summer filled with good times.

The next September saw us back again, the same carefree, happy group, but whose ranks were greatly depleted. What we lacked in quantity we had in quality. As our stripes advanced farther up our sleeves, so rose our hopes and ambitions to keep our good record clean. As usual many became leaders in different branches of school activities. Again our knowledge of tactical problems proved priceless and we did more than our share in capturing the highest military rating for Augusta. June came along just in time to give us a much needed rest before we had to put our shoulders to the wheel for the final grind.

First Classmen at last! After four long years, our ambition was realized. The peak of our prep school career had been reached and now it remained to us to make our last year the most precious and valuable of the four. Finally the time had come when it was our turn to furnish the battalion with the highest cadet officers. Our days were filled with work and activities, our study periods were spent in real honest-to-goodness study (maybe) and for the first time we enjoyed the satisfaction of seeing good grades on our report cards go home (also maybe). No sooner had we really gotten under way than "finals" came to end our days at Augusta. Four long years—but when we look back on them they were undoubtedly the shortest of our lives. May the classes who follow us, love and respect their Alma Mater as we do, so that, therefore, the school's aim may be always to excel.

CHARLES P. ALEXANDER

"FuFu" "C. P."

POCAHONTAS, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "C," Tennis Club, Y. M. C. A.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "C," Y. M. C. A., Minnow Boxing.

Ever hear of the name "Alexander the Great?" If not, you shall read of that inspiring name in these few lines. "Fu" possesses all the characteristics needed to carry him successfully through life. He is of a retiring nature, quiet, calm, determined, and has the capacity to master his undertakings. In view of the fact that he was a willing worker and one able to do any task correctly that happened to be assigned to him, he was made a Corporal and has sported the "stripes" since October. As "C. P." leaves us we shall miss him, but realizing that it is for his own good, each one joins hands and wishes him a prosperous, enjoyable, well lived life.

"Gwan, 'Keno,' lemme alone."

THOMAS H. ALPHIN

"Tom" "Aspirin"

HOT SPRINGS, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "E," Trap Shooting Club.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "C," Gun Club, Junior Choir, History Medal.

Third Year—First Sergeant Staff, Junior Choir, Trap Shooting Club, Post Master.

Over the mountains from Hot Springs came a brainy red faced lad, eager to be a soldier. This was none other than "Tommy," known for his high grades. "Tommy" was seldom seen his "rat" year with the exception of the times when he was shooting clay pigeons with Capt. Parkins. His second year was a repetition of his first along that line, but this year he has "come out of his hole" and given us a chance to see the real "Tom" Alphin. As a reward for his diligence, hard work, and faithfulness, he was made a First Sergeant on the staff and Postmaster, and we of '31 can say that we are proud to have him in our midst. Keep up the good work, "Tom," and we know that you will always be at the front.

"Pole, you half-wit."

JOHN P. BOON

"Daniel" "Peyton"

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "C," Tiger Baseball, Football, Basketball.

Second Year—Private Co. "B," Tiger Baseball, Football, Basketball.

We first saw "Peyton" with a serious and intelligent look on his face—and now,—both have vanquished. His carefree nature makes him outstanding and has done wonders in making friends for him. Although, he has never had the pleasure of wearing "stripes" he did not lack the necessary knowledge, but derived more pleasure out of trifling than in being a dignified officer. Women have been a perpetual source of trouble to him, but now he has learned not to take them seriously in order to devote more time to "shoveling . . ." You'll be missed, pal, but if self-confidence and personality can lead to success, yours is assured.

"Natural, one time."

ROBERT A. BOWMAN

"Windy"

DAYTONA BEACH, FLORIDA

First Year—Private Co. "D," Track Team, Bible Class, Y. M. C. A., Episcopal Club.
Second Year—Private Co. "C," Bible Class, Y. M. C. A., Episcopal Club.
Third Year—Private Co. "B," Track Team, Monogram Club, State Prep School Mile Champion.
Fourth Year—Sergeant Co. "A," Track Team, Indoor Track Team, State Prep School Indoor Mile Champion, State Prep School Mile Champion, Southern Conference Thousand-Yard Champion, Monogram Club, Busted Aristocrat.
Fifth Year—Second Lieutenant Co. "A," Track Team, Captain Track Team, State Prep School Mile Champion, Monogram Club, Second Lieutenant U. S. Army Infantry Reserves.

When "Windy" left Daytona Beach the city lost one of its speed kings. Although he has never been officially timed by the A. A. A., he is reputed to have told some pretty fast ones. As an athlete, "Windy" is not in the least bit slow either. He is one of the best prep school milers in the south. Along military lines he was made a sergeant his second class year and is now graduating as a lieutenant. We hate to bid farewell "Windy" but since we must, "good-by." May the future hold luck and success for you.

"Favorite expression censored."

WILLIAM E. BRADFORD

"Bill"

FAYETTE, MISSISSIPPI

First Year—Private Co. "D," Y. M. C. A., Tiger Football, Basketball, Baseball, Boxing Squad, Track Squad.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "D," Y. M. C. A., Tiger Football, Basketball, Baseball Squad, Delegate to Y. M. C. A. Conference.

Third Year—Color Sergeant, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Delegate to Y. M. C. A. Conference, Tiger Football, Basketball, Assistant Postmaster.

Just why "Bill" left Mississippi and came way up here to the academy, has never been known, but his state lost one loyal son. He shouldered his rifle with the rest of us and proved to be a good-natured boy and a willing worker. The following year he had the opportunity to prove his ability as an officer, which he did with great ease. Through his hard work he has proved himself equal to every occasion; he has made life long friends, he has developed into a young man of high character and ideals. As you return home this year for the last time, we say that we hate to see you go and send with you wishes of success and happiness.

"Dad shame it."

RICHARD F. BROOKFIELD

"Dick"

BRYN MAWR, PENNSYLVANIA

First Year—Private Co. "E," Y. M. C. A., Minnow Basketball.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "C," Y. M. C. A., Swimming Squad, Rifle Team.

Third Year—Senior Platoon Sergeant Co. "B," Y. M. C. A., Rifle Team.

Dick arrived at Augusta three years ago in the proverbial three cornered pants, or very close to it. He was a little fellow that didn't look like he could stand the gaff, but he has, and in a remarkable way. He has put his remarkable brain to work and is graduating as platoon sergeant at a very early age. His friends are numerous and he has bound them to him by his generous nature and good disposition. We are sorry to see him leave us but we know that whenever we may hear of him again it will always be in a creditable manner. Good-bye, Dick and good luck.

"For crying out loud."

JOHN W. CAMPBELL

"Jack" "J. W."

WASHINGTON, D. C.

First Year—Private Band, Y. M. C. A.
Second Year—Corporal Band, Y. M. C. A.

Here is one "drummer" who is not a traveling salesman and there are no jokes on or about him. This talented young drummer came to us from the "Nation's Capital," in September, 1929. His sole ambition summed up was to torment the lives of all Keydets by accompanying the bugle at "rev." Not withstanding this fact, he managed to keep his popularity. He has never shown out in any particular field, but when you want something done, just call on the little boy. "Jack" has never been perfect by any means; on the other hand he has never done anything maliciously bad. In view of the fact that our ways will part this year, we extend to "Jack" our sincerest wishes for happiness.

"Go to Fool."

BRYAN W. CARR

"Car" "B. W."

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA

First Year—Private Co "D."
Second Year—Private Co. "A."

Of course you've all heard of the car(r)s that run on four wheels, but not all of us had heard of the Carolina Carrs who walk on legs as you and I. When those said legs carry "Car" through the arch for the last time, he will leave behind him a multitude of true friends who are always interested in his good work. One can't always make perfect marks, but one can darn near. "B. W." belongs to the latter group, as he usually leads his classes in a manner that has not been equalled in some years. The time will be when Augusta will be proud of her son from Carolina—so fight on, buddy, we are all with you.

"Great day from pea-turkey."

FRANK P. CARR

"Frankie" "Street Carr"

WASHINGTON, D. C.

First Year—Private Co. "C," Junior Literary Society, Minnow Athletics.

Second Year—Private Co. "D," Junior Literary Society, Minnow Athletics.

Third Year—Corporal Co. "C," Senior Literary Society, Peep Athletics.

Fourth Year—Sergeant Co. "A," Senior Literary Society, Peep Athletics.

Fifth Year—First Lieutenant Co. "D," Editor-in-Chief of Company Bayonet, Varsity Baseball Squad.

Sixth Year—Captain of Co. "B," Senior Literary Society.

Frank is one of these bashful boys that has kept himself in remarkable seclusion for six years. No one knows much about Frank but what they do know, they like. He has always conducted himself in such a manner that despite his bashful and reserved nature he has a host of friends. He failed to hide his talent from the tactical department however and is now the second Captain of the battalion. We know that this hidden light will continue to show itself and that Frank's future success is assured. Good-bye old fellow and best luck.

"Double Time!!!"

CURTIS L. CLOUD

"Sugar"

HAMLET, NORTH CAROLINA

First Year—Private Co. "A," Junior Literary Society, Minnow Football, Basketball and Baseball.

Second Year—Private Co. "A," Peep Football, Company Boxing, Junior Literary Society.

Third Year—Corporal Co. "C," Peep Football, Senior Literary Society.

Fourth Year—Second Lieutenant Co. "E," Manager Swimming, Senior Literary Society.

Who would ever have thought that our "Sugar" would become the second in command of the "Safety Pin Patrol," but you know you can't keep a good man down. He has become a very talented artist along the lines of "Gab." No "bull session" is complete without "Sug," nor is he ever absent from one of these contests. His plans for the future are indefinite, but no matter where he goes or what he does, success will always be with him. After three years of Cease and one with Goodloe, he ought to be able to stand anything. It will be hard to say good-bye, but with your ability we are sure to hear of you again soon.

"Gimme a weed."

CHARLES E. DEAL, JR.

"Shuffle" "Killer"

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK

First Year—Private Co. "A," Minnow Athletics, Bible Class, Junior Literary Society, Y. M. C. A.

Second Year—Private Co. "B," Junior Athletics, Bible Class, Sergeant-at-Arms Junior Literary Society, Y. M. C. A.

Third Year—Corporal Co. "C," President Sunday School, Vice-President Junior Literary Society, Cadet Staff, Company Boxing.

Fourth Year—Senior Platoon Sergeant Co. "C," Editor Platoon Cadet, Senior Literary Society, Company Boxing.

Fifth Year—First Lieutenant Co. "C," Cotillion Club.

When "Charlie" first came to us, which was rather a long time ago, he was one of the smallest cadets in the battalion, in fact, he isn't such a terrible brute now. But what he lacked in stature, he made up for in character and personality. We've always known "Shuffle" to be the pal of each and every boy in barracks, regardless of the situation, and we know that in future life, with his winning ways, he's bound to be a great success. "Charley" is leaving us this year, much to the regret of all concerned, and we, the class of '31, wish him the best of luck in later years.

"Fours and tens."

NORMAN M. GOODLOE

"Death"

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "A," Colonel Roller's Bible Class, Y. M. C. A., Basketball Squad.

Second Year—Private Co. "C," Y. M. C. A., Red's Gang.

Third Year—Sergeant Co. "A," Y. M. C. A., Varsity Football Squad, Busted Aristocrats, Red's Gang.

Fourth Year—Second Lieutenant Co. "D," Cheer Leader, H. N. Club.

Late in October in the year '27, "Death" fell into our ranks and immediately won a place in the hearts of everyone he met. Despite the trials and tribulations of a "rat's existence, Norman took it all with a smile and returned his second year bringing back with him that same carefree spirit which has steadily increased his popularity. After being a private for two years, his ability and personality as a leader won him the position of a sergeant in the military department. This year his responsibility has increased to such an extent that he holds the position of lieutenant. Although we wish him the very best of luck, we know that it is unnecessary, because Norman will attain the heights of success through his own ability.

"It don't make a d— to me."

FRANK M. HARGREAVE

"Frankie" "Pete"

FORREST HILLS, LONG ISLAND, N. Y.

First Year—Private Co. "C."
Second Year—Private Band.
Third Year—Sergeant Band, Swimming Team, Minstrel Show.
Fourth Year—Lieutenant Band, Swimming Team, Cotillion Club, Final Ball Committee.
Fifth Year—Captain of "E" Co. and Adjutant, President of Cotillion Club, Varsity Football Team, Captain Minor Monogram Club, Vice-President of Y. M. C. A., Vice-President of Bible Class, 165-Pound Wrestling Champion, Leader of the Thanksgiving Hops, Assistant Leader of Easter Hops, Assistant Leader of Final Ball, Final Ball Committee, Cheer Leader, Senior Literary Society, Final Declamation, Minstrel Show, Second Lieutenant U. S. Reserves, Camp Meade Club.

Dog is man's best friend—Frank is ours. He has acquired a reputation among a few as being conceited and snobish, but his characteristics along that line tend to make him more popular and are becoming, rather than distracting. His qualities as a pal are hard to beat—but—he has two faults, a squeaky fountain pen and a misinterpretation of his singing ability. As the years have clicked by, Frank has always been equal to the occasion, working and playing, and as we look back, we see our "adjutant"—outstanding. Good-bye, friend, may success be with you always.

"Look me over."

EDWIN W. HILDEBRAND

"Ed"

STAUNTON, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Quartermaster Co.
Second Year—Private Quartermaster Co.
Third Year—Platoon Sergeant Quartermaster Company, Representative State Y. M. C. A. Prep School Council.
Fourth Year—Captain Quartermaster Co., Bayonet Staff, Assistant Manager Football, Assistant Advertising Manager RECALL, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.
Fifth Year—Captain Quartermaster, Ad Astra Per Aspera, Treasurer of Student Body, Treasurer of Honor Committee, Business Manager RECALL, Cotillion Club, Final Ball Committee, Treasurer of Athletic Association, Cheer Leader, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.

"Ed" came into our midst in the fall of '26, and he started immediately with the Q. M. Company where he was to rise to the rank of captain. He never takes academics very seriously, but when finals roll around and the year's work is all finished, "Ed" is always among the leading students. He has certainly shown himself worthy of the honors bestowed upon him, and if you knew "Ed" you would not wonder why everyone considers him their very best friend. His friends are numerous, his pals are many. Good luck, "Ed."

"Eggy keep an eye on me."

ROBERT HOWARD

"Rob"

TARBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

First Year—Private Band, Wrestling Squad, Y. M. C. A.
Second Year—Private Band, Company Wrestling and Basketball.

Initiative, ambition, ability, personality, all rolled up in one—don't guess. I'll tell you, it's "Rob" Howard. Those of us who know him, like him,—like in the sense of knowing that he is a real pal, and one worthy of going out of the way to make his friendship. His greatest delight is "pulling fast ones" which he does with a great deal of suavity. Rob's feet are never still—not St. Vitis Dance, just plain dance. At every "hop" he's there with belles on, hanging all over his neck—but he's used to that. We hate to see "Rob" leave these portals for the last time but we know that success is with him so all we need to say is "good-bye."

"Well personally, I don't give a gosh darn."

JOHN M. HUNDLEY

"Muggs"

DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

First Year—Minnow Athletics, Private Co. "B," Major Jake's Bible Class.
Second Year—Private Co. "B," Minnow Athletics.
Third Year—Sergeant Co. "C," Member Senior Literary Society.
Fourth Year—Lieutenant Co. "A," Editor-in-Chief Platoon Bayonet," Red Wily's Gang.
Fifth Year—Captain Co. "C," President Student Body, President Honor Committee, President Athletic Association, President Final Ball Committee, President Ciceronian Literary Society, Vice-President Cotillion Club, Treasurer RECALL Staff, Member "Y" Cabnet, Manager Basketball Team, Assistant Leader, Opening Hop, Assistant Leader Thanksgiving Hop, Leader Easter Hop.

You don't know the name above? Well then you don't know any one at A. M. A. "Muggs." As he was unjustly christened on his arrival here, is perhaps the most outstanding man of '31. He is firm in his beliefs and no one can change him. In the athletic line, "Muggs" does not shine, due to a bad heart, but who wouldn't have a bad heart with all the girls crazy about him? "Muggs" has the fellowship of everyone in barracks and as a friend he is hard to equal. It did not take him long to prove ability as a leader, although this quiet, unassuming chap never did put on "airs." He is a true pal from beginning to end. We'll miss you, partner,—and here's a toast to your success and happiness. May we meet again.

"Jacob, what'll you give me for your letter from Beck?"

ROBERT M. KING

"Bob" "Kingfish" "Kingtut"

CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND

First Year—Private Co. "D," Swimming Team, Minor Monogram Club.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "A," Major Monogram Club, Swimming Team, Golf Team, Minor Monogram Club.

"I can swim better than I can talk," quoth Robert King at a certain banquet, and he hit the nail on the head. There's no doubt about it, Bob's a great swimmer as can be seen by the major monogram and the medals which were thrust upon him. He hasn't tried to win fame, he's just been himself, always considerate and helping others. Though two years is a short time, we've learned to love "Bob" in spite of the fact that he hails from Cumberland. "Kingfish," old man, we hate to say good-bye, but we know that you'll reflect nothing but honor and credit on your school.

"Nope, I don't have a girl."

CORNELIUS W. LAMBERT

"Bill"

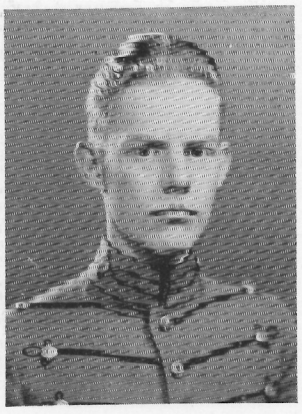

STAUNTON, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "B," Y. M. C. A.
Second Year—Private Co. "D," Y. M. C. A., Individual Competitive Drill Cup, Company Cup, Rifle Team.
Third Year—Second Lieutenant Co. "C," Y. M. C. A., Ad Astra Per Aspera.
Fourth Year—Captain Co. "C," Treasurer Student Body, Treasurer Honor Committee, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, President Ciceronian Literary Society, Ad Astra Per Aspera, Manager Varsity Football, Cotillion Club, Final Ball Committee, Advertising Editor of THE RECALL, Treasurer Athletic Association, Chairman Y. M. C. A. Committee.
Fifth Year—Captain Co. "A," Vice-President Student Body, Ad Astra Per Aspera, Vice-President Honor Committee, Treasurer Y. M. C. A., Cotillion Club Treasurer, Final Ball Committee, Editor RECALL.

Five years ago "Billy" bore down on A. M. A. and received the biggest surprise of his life, for the big dogs were hard on rats in those days. Such a course he pursued throughout the stormy period! and, after an age, emerged the envied second year man but still a private. Billy astonished the home town folks by getting second lieutenant his third year. From then on there was no stopping him. He was a captain his last two years. We hear that he intends to take up aviation. Barring luck and crack-ups, he'll make a darn good one. We see big things ahead for this boy, and after spending five years with him behind these barracks walls, we ought to know.

"Henry, you fool."

NATHANIEL M. MARTIN

"Nat"

WASHINGTON, D. C.

First Year—Private Co. "D," Peep Athletics, Fresh Air, Rifle Team, Y. M. C. A.

Second Year—Sergeant Co. "D," Tiger Football, Tiger Basketball, Varsity Baseball Squad, Y. M. C. A., Fresh Air, Athletic Editor of Record, Kayoodle Staff, Rifle Team.

Third Year—Senior Second Lieutenant Co. "B," Wrestling Squad, Rifle Team, Track Squad, Y. M. C. A., Company Basketball, Fresh Air.

Nathaniel Macon Martin—heard it before? Well if you haven't, wait awhile. This boy is destined to turn out big. He's quiet, clean, and ambitious. They said mean things about Cæsar for this quality, but it hasn't hurt him much—nor will ridicule bother this one. A fellow who studies tries, and thinks is bound to turn out real articles, not shams. "Nat" is no super-man. Wrestling, football, and baseball are his bids for physique—Y. M. C. A. and a worn Bible for character. Annapolis is his aim, and if work, and work alone will put him there—why he's as good as in now. Let's all join hands and wish him the very best possible.

"Now look what you've done."

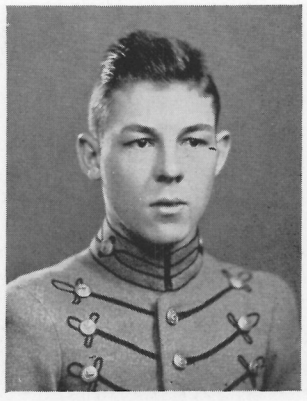

FLOYD MERRY

"Pee Wee"

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

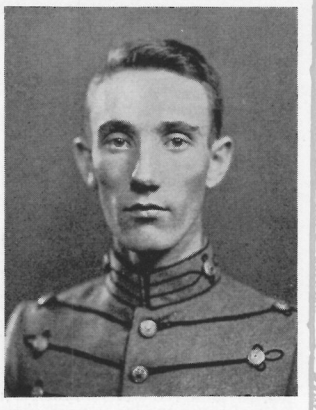

First Year—Private Co. "B," Y. M. C. A., Tiger Baseball, Peep Football.

Second Year—Sergeant Co. "C," Y. M. C. A., Tiger Football, Varsity Baseball Squad.

From the railroad center, Merry wandered to us. A dark haired, dark complexioned youth, full of determination and grit. He fully demonstrated this by his unblemished record with the Tiger athletic teams. In his second year a certain party gave him quite a bit of worry, but he soon learned that love and military will not mix, so he simply forgot the former. Floyd was an exceptionally good student, and excelled himself to such an extent that he became a candidate for a scholarship. When his name is mentioned we think of him as a sturdy, stern, trustworthy friend, always willing to do the right thing. As he leaves us, may God bless him in all that he undertakes.

"Got him in a storm."

HOWARD M. MILES

"Grandpop"

CLARKSBURG, MARYLAND

First Year—Private Co. "C," Track Squad.

Second Year—Private Co. "A," Baseball Squad.

Third Year—Private Co. "B," Wrestling Squad.

Fourth Year—Sergeant Quartermaster Co., Wrestling Team, Minor Monogram Club, First Sergeant.

Fifth Year—Lieutenant Quartermaster Co., Second Lieutenant U. S. Army Infantry Reserves, Wrestling Team, Minor Monogram Club, Major Monogram Club, Rifle Team, Captain Rifle Team, Staff.

In the fall of '26, a small, thin-haired chap, later nicknamed "Grandpop," made his way down the pike to enter our midst, but it was not long before he had made his way into the hearts of his "brother rats" as well as the "old men." His popularity has steadily increased by means of his well known smile and his carefree, easy going manner. Although too small his first years to go in for varsity competition, the latter made his monogram his graduating year after an undefeated season on the "mat." The fact that during his five long years here, no one has made him lose his temper, is his outstanding characteristic. With this quality for a starter, it is useless to wish him success, for he should very easily attain it for himself. In closing, we of the class of '31, wish you the best of luck, "Grandpop."

"Clarke—you gripe me."

GEORGE D. MOFFETT

"Mr. George"

DETROIT, MICHIGAN

First Year—Private Band, Orchestra, Inter-Company Boxing, Y. M. C. A., Senior Literary Society.

Second Year—Corporal Band, Orchestra, Inter-Company Basketball, Y. M. C. A., Track Squad, Minstrel, Senior Literary Society.

Third Year—First Lieutenant, Acting Captain Band, Assistant Manager and Director of Orchestra, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Arm Band Committee, Cotillion Club, Literary Editor of RECALL, Vice-President Ciceronian Literary Society, Secretary Bible Class, Delegate to Y. M. C. A. Conference, Minstrel, Company Basketball.

What, you've never heard him try to play a "sax"—Man, you're lucky—you're not unfortunate. Every day in every way it gets harder on our nervous system. Aside from the fact that he's a good "sax" player, "Mr. George" is a competent scholar and officer. He may hit discords in the band room but he certainly does know how to blend friendship, character, and honesty all in one long stringy body. In his three years at Augusta, he has made an enviable reputation. He's the highest ranking third year man and his literary ability has shown like a star in a dark heaven in the way he has done his work on this publication.

"Physics might be plain to some people!"

JAMES G. MOORE, JR.

"Jim"

GATES MILLS, OHIO

First Year—Private Co. "D," Varsity Football Squad, Tiger Basketball, Tiger Baseball.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "A," Varsity Football Squad.

If all the bandits in America were killed and laid end to end, Jim would hear about it first and spread it throughout barracks. Everyone knows his cheery smile and voice—At least they have heard the latter. Though not a star in anyone branch of athletics, he equally divided his time and versatility and turned out to be a thorough success in each attempt. There is always time for pleasure and "Jim" found his in trying to knock down the battalion commander. This, I might also add, is one attempt in which he failed. Classmates as good as you, pal, are hard to find, so we'll just say "so long" and not "good-bye."

"I believe Bowman likes me."

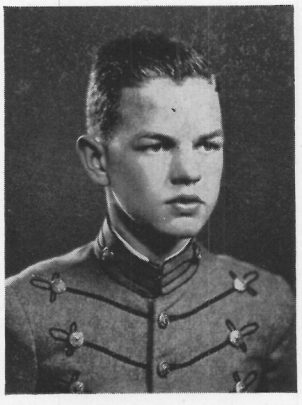

WILLIAM V. RAWLINGS

"Bill"

CAPRON, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "D," Peep Football, Tiger Football.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "A," Tiger Football, Tiger Baseball.

"Bill" did us a great injustice his first year by keeping to himself too much and not allowing us to really know him. This year, however, he has shared his good company with all of us when not busy at the Post Exchange or out "Tigering." In two years he has dabbed in athletics, become an officer, increased his vocabulary—in other words been a darn good fellow. Our time spent with you, "Bill," has been more pleasant than we realized and as Finals draw on, we see that it's going to be harder to say good-bye than we had anticipated. Keep on working as you've done here and success is assured you. So long, partner.

"What, no mail?"

AB W. RICKS

"Ab"

HANES, NORTH CAROLINA

First Year—Private Co. "D," Y. M. C. A.

Second Year—Private Co. "C," Y. M. C. A.

Third Year—Sergeant Co. "B," Busted Aristocrats, "Red's" Gang, Best Private.

Fourth Year—Second Lieutenant Co. "B," Manager Track.

'Twas in the month of September, A. D. 1927, that a small boy was heard to make a wise crack on his way in the front arch. Since that time, "Ab," has grown considerably, and his supply of jokes has by no means decreased. As a student, our friend is no failure, but he could do better, were it not for that study hour chat on the virtues of Winston-Salem, that he and "Paddock" must get out of their systems. He has risen to the rank of lieutenant, which he fills very efficiently. Now that we have reached the fork in the road where we must part, we bid you farewell and hope that your road may lead to success.

"Son, ain't you got no home?"

JOSEPH C. ROULETTE, II

"Joe"

HAGERSTOWN, MARYLAND

First Year—Private Band, Varsity Football Squad, Swimming Squad, Company Boxing.

Second Year—Corporal Co. "D," Company Boxing, Company Wrestling, Swimming Squad, Social Editor Platoon Bayonet, Varsity Baseball Squad.

Third Year—Junior Platoon Sergeant Co. "A," Busted Aristocrats, Swimming Team, Minor Monogram Club, Tiger Baseball, "H. N.'s."

"Joe" joined our ranks as a third class rat, but it wasn't long before he made himself known as a good, happy-go-lucky chap—Welcome anywhere and everywhere. Along athletic lines, Joe shined in swimming, and in social functions you could always be sure of his presence. He likes to play african golf and you may go up to the tower and find him there smiling, not matter what trick fate is playing on him. Another as good and as friendly as "Joe" will be along time in the making and it is the wish of every man in the battalion that he may have all of the success and comforts that life has to offer. "So long pal."

"Hey, pull."

JOSEPH A. SALICRUP

"Sally"

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

First Year—Private Co. "D."

Second Year—Private Co. "A."

Third Year—Sergeant Co. "B."

Fourth Year—First Lieutenant Co. "A," Military Editor of THE RECALL, Manager of Fencing, Second Lieutenant U. S. Reserves.

We do not know what inspired "Sally" to come from South America to a military school unless it was because he wished to learn military and return home to be a revolutionary leader, however, "Sally" came to us in 1927 with high hopes and ambitions. He has indeed fulfilled his ambition as may be seen by his rank of first lieutenant and his knowledge of military. He takes drill, not as a part of the daily drudgery, but as a pleasure and past time. Although not a great ladies' man, he always seems to be on hand when a certain blue Nash arrives from Staunton. During his four years at Augusta he has made many friends and few if any enemies. Good-bye, "Sally." We all wish you the best of luck in future years.

"You all got a match?"

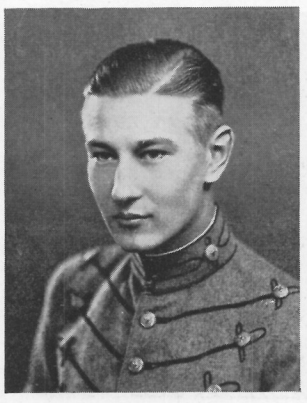

FREDERICK M. SIGAFOOS

"Sig"

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

First Year—Private Band, Company Wrestling, Swimming Team, Y. M. C. A., Tennis Club, Track Team.

Second Year—Corporal Band, Assistant Photography Editor of RECALL, Y. M. C. A., Company Wrestling, Trap Shooting Club, Company Basketball, Tennis Club, Track Team.

"Sig" came to us last year as an ordinary "rat," and although no one paid much attention to him at first, they soon began to realize that there was a talented youth in their midst. As an all-around fellow he has no equal, as a track man—well—you should just see him perform. Hand him a bamboo pole and he can sail over anything twice his height, he throws the weights as though they were baseballs, and he's good for a first place on any man's team with the discus. Whenever there's a hard job to be tackled, "Sig" is usually always the first on deck and the first to complete it. We're going to miss you, old boy, but we all wish you the best of luck and know that you will come out on top in everything that you undertake.

"Rocked in the cradle of the deep."

THOMAS T. SPENGLER

"Tibs"

NEWPORT NEWS, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "D," Fencing Team, Tennis Team, Minnow Athletics, Member Y. M. C. A.

Second Year—Private Co. "B," Fencing Team, Tennis Team, Peep Athletics, Member Y. M. C. A., President Junior Literary Society.

Third Year—Sergeant Co. "B," Tennis Team, Editor-in-Chief of Company Bayonet, Peep Athletics, Company Athletics, Wrestling Squad.

Fourth Year—Lieutenant Co. "D," Wrestling Squad, Manager of Cotillion Club, Y. M. C. A., Champion Company Wrestler, 135-Pound Class.

Four years ago, a small boy entered, for the first time, the portals of Augusta. No one could picture that little fellow as being an officer or a prominent figure in school activities. "Tibs" has become what the high aspiring "rats" are now longing to be. His idea of success is in pleasing others and by that likable quality, he has won a warm spot in the heart of everyone. Just what "Tibs" is planning for the future, no one seems to know, with the exception of the "chosen few" of the fairer sex—maybe! We needn't say good-by, "Tibs," because we're sure to hear of you again, even though we may never meet. Please remember your happy days at A. M. A. and associate with them, your pals of the graduation class.

"Just another girl trying to get ahead."

JOHN B. STARR

"Jack"

LARCHMONT, NEW YORK

First Year—Private Co. "C," Track Squad.

Second Year—Private Co. "C," Varsity Swimming Team, Minor Monogram Club, Tiger Football, Assistant Boxing Manager, Fencing Team, Assistant Sports Editor on RECALL Staff.

Although "Jack" came to us in the middle of "'30," by finals he had made up for lost time in the standing of his fellow cadets. During his second and last year he proved himself to be a fine student and a boy with a character that will carry him through life with flying colors. We hear that "Jack" is contemplating entering Harvard, and we, his classmates, wish him the best of luck in this old cock-eyed world.

"Heh, Heh, I have stole a cheroot."

ROBERT L. TAYLOR, III

"Bob" "Fats" "Apple Cheeks"

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

First Year—Private Co. "C," Y. M. C. A., Junior Literary Society, Minnow Athletics.

Second Year—Private Band, Junior Literary Society, Peep Athletics.

Third Year—Sergeant Band, Manager Boxing and Wrestling.

Fourth Year—First Lieutenant Band, Manager Boxing, Cadet Manager Southern Prep School Boxing Tournament, RECALL Staff, Y. M. C. A., Second Lieutenant U. S. Reserves, Camp Meade, Minor Monogram Club.

There entered these walls four years ago a little fellow with cheeks like apples—get the connection, "Apple Cheeks." From "rathood" to graduation he has worked steadily, trying to leave behind him an enviable reputation. Although "Bob" has not fully decided what career he will pursue, we feel sure that it will be electrical engineering, due to the fact that his mind has been running like electricity ever since he has been able to think (?). He played with electric trains until twelve years of age, and everything he has said or done since, has been shocking. "Fats'" ability as a base drum beater is great, however, we sometimes wish he were beating himself over the head with a hammer. Through thick and thin though, "Bob," we're all your friends and you have our best wishes for success and happiness.

"I've got an idea."

EDGAR B. WERTHIEMER

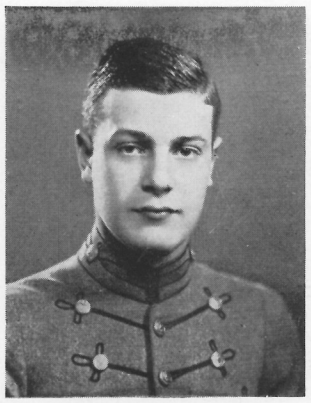

"Wert" "Ed"

NEWPORT NEWS, VIRGINIA

First Year—Private Co. "D," Y. M. C. A., Tennis Team.

Second Year—Private Co. "B," Bayonet Staff, Tennis Team, Company Basketball and Baseball, Y. M. C. A.

Third Year—Sergeant Co. "D," Y. M. C. A., Tennis Team, "After Taps Club," Football Squad, Company Basketball.

"Ed" came to us three years ago, a meek little "rat," but by perseverance and an overwhelming desire to get ahead, he has surpassed all our expectations. If "Ed" goes forth to college with the same grit and determination with which he has gone through prep school, his future is assured. "Ed's" good nature won for him a host of true friends—friends not for a year but for a lifetime. His presence will be missed next year and it will be hard to find one worthy of filling the vacancy. We of the class of "31," wish all the success possible to our pal, "Wert."

"I certify that's what Capt. Hull said."

J. HENRY WRIGHT

"B-Neck"

SCHUYLER, VIRGINIA

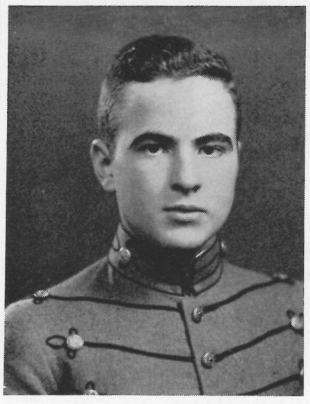

First Year—Private Co. "B," Y. M. C. A., Minnow Football.

Second Year—Private Co. "B," Y. M. C. A., Minnow Athletics.

Third Year—Corporal Co. "D," Y. M. C. A.

Fourth Year—Sergeant Major Staff, Assistant Manager Football, Manager Baseball, Y. M. C. A.

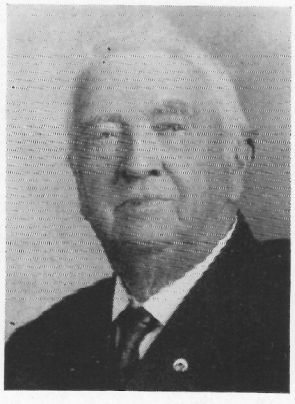

Fifth Year—Captain Co. "D," Secretary Student Body, Secretary Honor Committee, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, RECALL Staff, Cotillion Club, Ad Astra Per Aspera.

When "B-Neck" came to us, he decreased the population of Schuyler so much that the remaining eight of said town tried to bring their third baseman back so they could continue to have their Sunday School baseball team. Henry's mind has left all thoughts of baseball and rock quarries and is now up in the blue heavens where the mail planes soar. "Hank" is completely gone on the subject of aviation to such an extent that he's in a perpetual fog. When he comes down to earth, however, he's a darn good fellow and a real friend of everyone in school. You can't keep a good man down, so next year we expect to hear of Henry going up at an aviation school. Happy landings in all your flights and always remember that it isn't the fall that hurts, but the sudden stop.

"Conac."

AUGUSTA'S OLDEST ALUMNUS

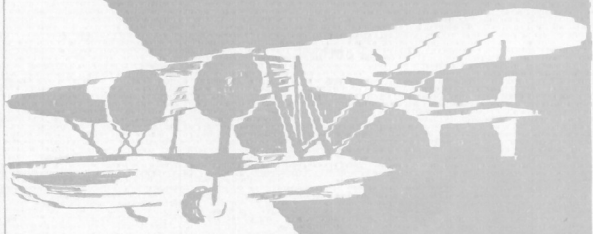

Mr. George Marshall Crawford, Augusta's oldest alumnus, was born at the old "Crawford House," three miles south of the "Old Stone Church," June 23, 1850.

At the age of fifteen he entered the Augusta Male Academy which is now, our A. M. A. He attended this school for nine years, under the able tutoring of the "Old Boss"—Col. C. S. Roller.

Mr. Crawford is now residing at Staunton, Va. Outside of being our oldest alumnus, he is one of our most loyal.

We of the Class of '31, welcome you to our midst.

SECOND CLASS

ALVIN C. YORK

Sergeant, 328th Infantry, 82nd Division—D. S. C., C. M. of H. Awarded for gallant bravery in leading seven men out under terrific fire and capturing one hundred and thirty-two prisoners and putting thirty-five machine guns out of action.

Second Class History

On the twenty-sixth of September, 1928, about a hundred boys entered the arch of A. M. A. overwhelmed with the thought of donning the uniform. In due time, each and every one of us learned the rules and regulations of a "rat" but through it all, with the hardships and difficulties, it has not done one of us any harm, but really much good.

The following year, to our disappointment, many of the boys that started in '28 did not return to help carry on our class. In this year we were in our prime glory, throwing bombs, receiving offices, and pestering "rats." Our class was represented in all the various branches of athletics and activities which added to our glory.

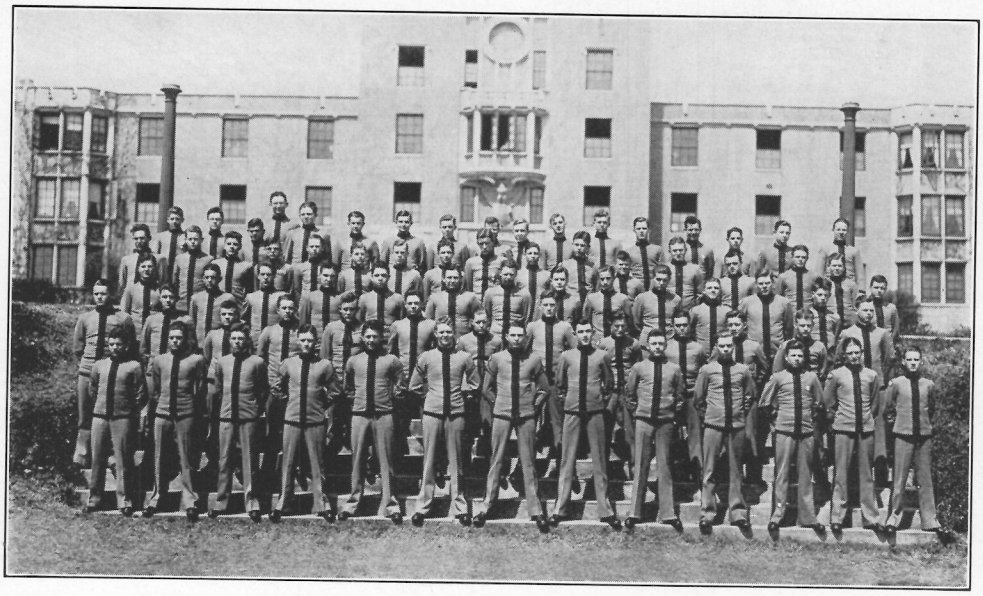

Coming back for the third year at ole' A. M. A., we found that the class had dwindled down exceedingly, in fact it was very small. This year was much different from last, due to the fact we had had our fling at pestering "rats," creating unnecessary disturbances, so most of us settled down and paid little attention to the above. Our classmates were highly honored by receiving high offices in the corps, monograms in athletics and positions on various committees and activities.

THIRD CLASS

SIDNEY E. MANNING

Corporal, 167th Infantry, 42nd Division—D. S. C., M. of H. Awarded for conspicuous gallantry in leading a platoon in an assault upon fortified heights, establishing a foothold on the enemy position and holding out until help arrived.

Third Class History

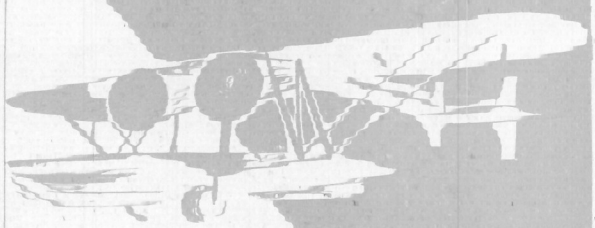

For some of us, the second milestone of our cadetship has just passed. For others—their career as an Augusta cadet has come to an end. To those who are leaving us, we are not going to say goodbye, but "So long until another day," because we all know that they will be back again to see us.

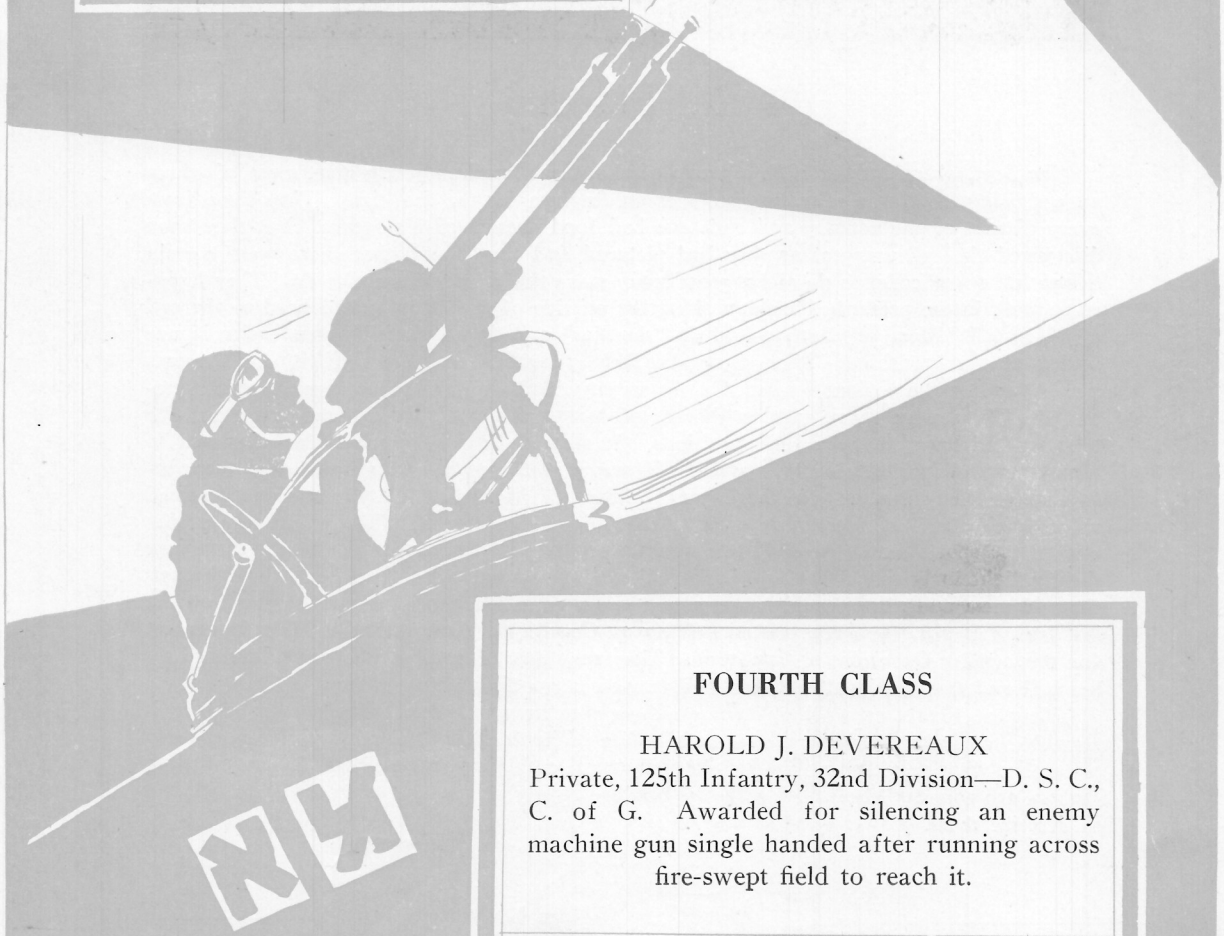

The class of '33 has fought it's mental and moral battles with outstanding success. We have all witnessed some wonderful days at A. M. A., as well as many gloomy ones, but, the wonderful days have been the more numerous. We admit that we have done our best to make the "Rats" realize their position of insignificance. However, we know from experience that before one can command he must learn to obey. We therefore feel that our efforts have been directed through the proper channels. Our class had lived the life of the man on the bottom, and we know that the "Rats" have lived the same. Now that "Finals" have come and gone, we are one and all the finest of friends.

Every sport and activity has been well represented by our class. We hold the honor of having been the largest "Rat" class that Augusta has ever had, also of being the first class of "Rats" to win the annual "Snow Battle." Although we have been considered during the past year, a scourge to the general welfare of the school we feel without doubt that we have stood up for what we consider fine and manly. If the hat were passed around to gather up the good sports, the third classmen would fill it to the brim.

Those of us who are returning next year will again walk away with all colors flying high.

FOURTH CLASS

HAROLD J. DEVEREAUX

Private, 125th Infantry, 32nd Division—D. S. C., C. of G. Awarded for silencing an enemy machine gun single handed after running across fire-swept field to reach it.

Rat History

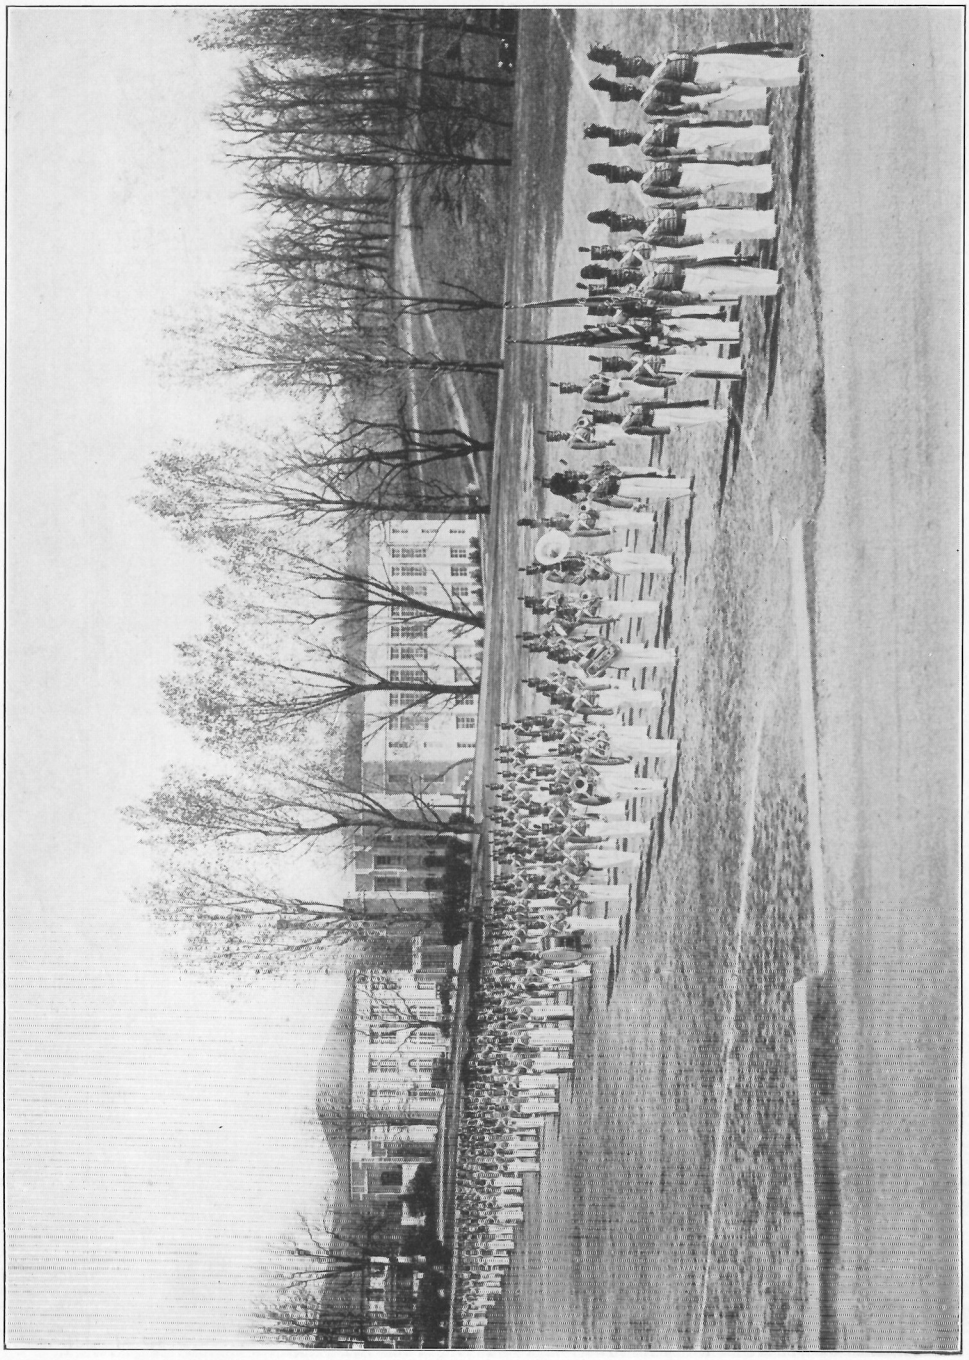

On September 22nd, of 1930, a group of about one hundred young men, most of whom were striving to gain an education, set eyes on Augusta for the first time. They came from every district of the country and each one had fond dreams of his future. But they soon discovered that all was not as they had pictured and they found that there were certain things for a new cadet to do and a great many more things for him not to do. They learned to walk in the prescribed fashion along the outside of the stoop and to heed to the call of "Mistoh!" Most of them took their "sheenies" and found that life was easier if one smiled at the hardships. Then came the athletic seasons and the majority of the rats turned out for the various teams. On the varsity football squad the rats were well represented. There were many rats on the second teams also and they deserve praise too for they worked hard to make their positions. It seemed that the much looked forward to Christmas Holidays would never arrive. However, the days went by slowly and then, before we realized it, we were in the joyous Holiday activities. But like all vacations it passed all to quickly and we were soon back to the old military routine. The excitement of the mid-winter sports made the days pass swifter for us and again the new cadets came into the limelight in boxing, wrestling, basketball and swimming. The time fairly flew through the mid term and after the March examinations were a thing of the past we were on the last lap. After a much appreciated holiday on Good Friday we started drilling in earnest for the coming Government Inspection. The monotony of routine was again lessened by baseball and track and on both teams there were a goodly number of new cadets.

Now, at Finals, as we look back on those months which seemed to pass so slowly it scarcely seems any time since we entered the life of insubordination and insignificance. Now we realize what it is that makes the old men return each year and we have the same feeling that we are bound to the school with ties that are strong yet become vague when we attempt to describe them.

MILITARY

FOUNDED 1868

LIEUTENANT CALDWELL

MAJOR BRINKLEY

The R. O. T. C.

Under the terms of the National Defence Act of 1920, the Army of the United States consists of the Regular Army, the National Guard, and the Organized Reserves. The Reserve Officers Training Corps is an integral part of the Organized Reserve, and is the main source of supply for Officers commissioned in this important branch of our national defence.

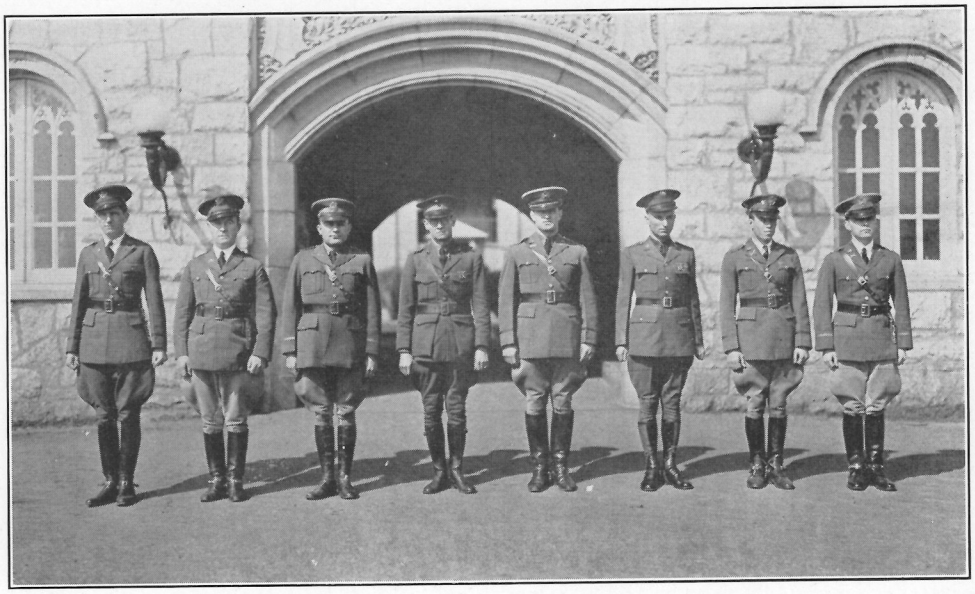

Augusta has always been a Military Academy, and its graduates have distinguished themselves in the military service of the United States since the foundation of the school. Regular Army Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers have been on duty at Augusta Military Academy since 1919. Under the supervision of the Regular Army instructors, the R. O. T. C. course, as prescribed by the War Department, is carried out.

The R. O. T. C. course consists of four years of academic and practical work at the Academy. In addition the student is required to attend one summer training camp of six weeks duration. Students are eligible to attend camp after they have successfully completed three years of the R. O. T. C. course. Camp attendance for junior units is voluntary, but a student must complete one camp before he is eligible to receive a commission as a Reserve Officer.

Junior R. O. T. C. Units are rated each year by the War Department. To receive the rating of "Honor School" is the ambition of every school, and is the highest rating that can be attained. Augusta is proud of the fact that it is an "Honor School," and the desire of the corps is to always keep this rating.

Major T. M. Brinkley came to Augusta Military Academy as P. M. S. and T., in the fall of 1929. Since that time he has taken a great interest in the athletic and social activities of the school as well as the military.

Augusta enters the military work with the same spirit of loyalty and co-operation that characterizes all activities of the Academy. With such spirit as now exists in the Corps our R. O. T. C. unit will always be outstanding and our graduates will continue to distinguish themselves in the Military Service of our Nation, as well as in other branches of life.

Rifle Team

Although we seldom think of our rifle team in the sport life of Augusta it represents a distinct and independent institution. Not unlike other sports it demands a particular type of physical fitness which should be at its best in such a group as this. It would be hard to describe this type of physical fitness, but steady nerves and good eyes are what approach it nearest. The results of engagements in this sport are not of mere local interest as in many other sports but are nationally known.

With a great amount of patience Lieutenant Caldwell selected the men that should constitute the team and undertook the task of coaching the team into form.

Although the team this year has not been as great a success as some of the teams have been in the past it could by no means be called unsuccessful due to its scores none of which could be classed as low.

The ten men with the highest standing are Durrett, Sigafoos, McQueen Chiswell, Miles, Jenkins, W., Lee, Legg, Brookfield, R., Martin, N., McEwan, and Minor. These men were awarded medals for their standing on the team. Durrett and Sigafoos were awarded silver and bronze medals respectively by the Third Corps Area.

Football Resume

THE football season of nineteen hundred and thirty, although it cannot be looked upon as the most successful that A. M. A. has ever had, was, all things considered, very creditable. For the most part the material was green and inexperienced with a noticeable lack of lettermen. The corps showed an undaunted spirit, and their support was greatly appreciated by the squad. All of the teams which the blue and white faced during the year, whether the game was won or lost, came off the field knowing that they had played a team made up of courageously fighting men.

The season opened with a 2-0 victory over the V. M. I. Junior Varsity in the Clay Bowl. The team showed great promise, and the prospects were bright for a good season. The line worked exceptionally well, while the backs tore off for long gains through tackle and around end. The climax came in the last quarter when Shorley, V. M. I. half-back, was tackled behind his own goal line for the winning score.

The following week A. M. A. lost a hard fought game to E. H. S. to the tune of 14-0. Consistent gains on the exchange of punts put the ball within scoring distance several times, but A. M. A. seemed to lack that scoring drive. Mitchell and McDonald scored for E. H. S. Garnett kicked both extra points. This game broke A. M. A.'s string of four successive victories over E. H. S.

On October 18th A. M. A. suffered the most terrific beating in the history of the corps from their rivals, Woodberry Forest. The 60-0 route started in the first quarter with a touchdown by Ford after a costly A. M. A. fumble on their eight yard line. From then on the field was a shamble. It was one of those impossible games where the team that got the jump got the game too, Woodberry got both; every play was a gain. Their tempestuous backs ripped through the line, made long gains around the ends, tossed bullet-like passes far down the field, in short, they were a team playing inspired ball. Freeman filled A. M. A.'s cup of woe to the brim by smashing through a completely disorganized team for his fourth touchdown of the day.

The Saturday following found A. M. A. at Fork Union, primed for victory. It was an afternoon on which the blue team could do nothing but win. "Curley" Jones, plunging fullback, breezed through a gap in the Fork Union line for the lone talley of the day. A. M. A. showed a remarkable reverse of form after the previous Saturday's crushing defeat. The team seemed to have gained new life in the intervening week. They played a hard, consistent game, launching terrific blows at Fork Union's forward wall and featuring a remarkable varied aerial attack.

In spite of two week's rest A. M. A. lost its next game to Greenbrier 19-0, Winters, one of the best football players G. M. S. has ever had, ran wild, scoring all the touchdowns of the day. The lighter, less experienced blue eleven seemed to be so much chaff before the gale of the West Virginians. The Greenbrier eleven showed decided superiority in every branch of the game. They presented a vigorous attack punctuated with tricky reverses and long floating passes, which always seemed to find a receiver.

The Clay Bowl ran true to it's name on November 15th. The hundred and twenty yards of playing field was a sea of mud, with Massanutten lost and wandering on its great expanse. The game ended with Augusta 13 points to the good. Thomas scored on a short pass over center in the first minutes of the third quarter, while Jones, D. L., scampered twenty yards for the final score. The team seemed to have found itself. The plays went off without a hitch. It was a smooth working machine and not just eleven individuals.

The following week, Shenandoah, like Cæsar, came, saw, and conquered. Their tactics, reminiscent of that great leader, consisted of unfathomable reverses, which carried them down the field in one unending wave. A plucky "B" squad seemed to check the avalanche for the first quarter, but when Shenandoah hit their stride there was no stopping them. They got their twelve points and proceeded to sit back and wet-nurse them. The game featured some of the prettiest hidden-ball plays of the season. The astounded spectators would watch the pass from center, and after a few bewildered seconds, locate the ball some twenty or thirty yards up the field. It was little short of uncanny. Late in the third quarter, Lashbrook, first string end, suffered a broken leg and was carried from the field.

The season drew to a close on Thanksgiving day, with a heart-rending 7-9 defeat at the hands of Fishburne. The game was the worst break A. M. A. got during a season of reverses. The blue team entered the lists at the half with a 7-0 lead and seemed decidedly capable of holding it. Late in the third quarter a blocked punt was recovered by A. M. A. on their own three yard line. Thomas dropped back to kick. The ball sped back, straight as an arrow. Thomas took a step preliminary to one of those lazy, soaring punts with which he proved his worth to the team. His foot went an inch over the sidelines—and Fishburne had two points. It seemed to take all of the heart out of the team. Fishburne scored again in the fourth quarter a few minutes before that last whistle which ended the season for the fightingest team that A. M. A. has ever been privileged to call its own. The team, although it cannot be compared with last year's world-beaters, showed great promise for a fine season next year. We feel sure that Capt. Deane will be able to build an unbeatable team the present squad. Thomas, W., Jones, D., Cover, Westcoat, Preston, McClung, and Harshberger, as well as many lesser lights, will be back for the coming season. The schedule is a difficult one, including a trip to New York to play Manlius School. Manlius usually has the pick of the northern prep school teams. Their records prove them worthy opponents. They will be a hard nut to crack, but we have full confidence on the big team. With Manlius in the dust, they will have a good claim to the title of the Atlantic champions. So here's to them! May they have every success, and add fresh glory to the name of Augusta.

To THE FOOTBALL TEAM OF NINETEEN THIRTY:

You have given your all for A. M. A. and be assured that it was appreciated to the "nth" degree. Your places will be hard to fill next year, but we know your fighting spirit will be always with the "Big Team."

The following men were awarded major monograms at the Thanksgiving dinner. Captain "Dee" Nuckols, Assistant Captain "Jimmy" Barnes, Thomas, W.,

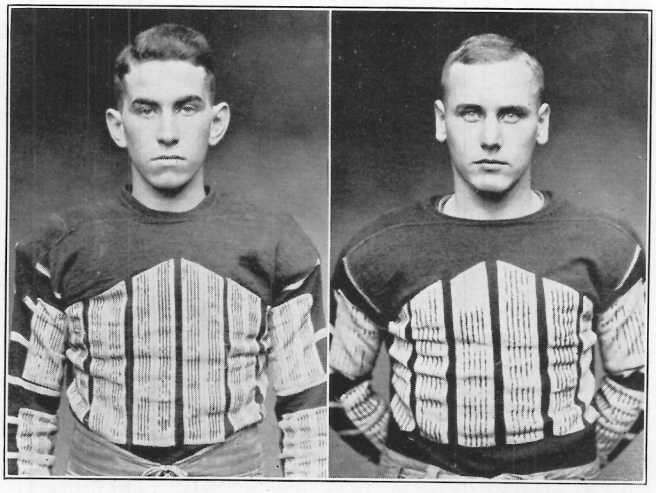

JONES, D. L. LASHBROOK THOMAS, W.

To the men without whom there would have been no "Big Team, who go out and slave day by day; who take the hard knocks without a whimper; who are always ready with praise and comfort for a more fortunate "A" squad; who give up all chance of glory or hope of distinction, for an ideal, which requires courage and spirit of the highest order; all this and more, we credit with unstinted praise to that foundation of all great teams, the "B" Squad.

The following men received minor monograms. Morris, H., Usher, Boxley, C., Clark, E., Holt, Bailey, Reniers, Cruel, Adams, W., Kelsey, Pankey, McFeely, Harrison, and Hargreave.

Basketball Resume

The basketball season of 1931, while it was not termed a success, certainly had its highlights, or rather light. Woodberry, the mighty, was humbled early in the season by an inspired Augusta five to the tune of 20-17. The game was fiercely contested and furnished some highly exciting moments. The blue team attained heights they never reached again, in the third quarter, when they rang up a total of fifteen points to their opponents eight.

From then on, Lady Lucy seemed to frown on the Blue team. Not a game could they win. This we believe was due entirely to the extreme weight of the schedule and the fine timber of their opponents.

On the whole, Captain Ott turned out a remarkably efficient five. They lacked only experience in playing together. He built his team around Captain Nickolas, and Jacob, flashing guard, the only letter man. In "Dope" Rangely, was uncovered one of the season's best players. "Dope" was a godsend to the team. Thomas, W., Gall, Bernier, Watters, and Pedio, all first year men, played fine games throughout the schedule.

The season featured some very close battles, one of which was with Harris Military Academy. This was A. M. A.'s second and last win. The boys played a whirlwind game. Every quarter was filled with thrills and the result was in doubt until the last few minutes, when A. M. A. slowly drew ahead, to finish ten points to the good 38-28.

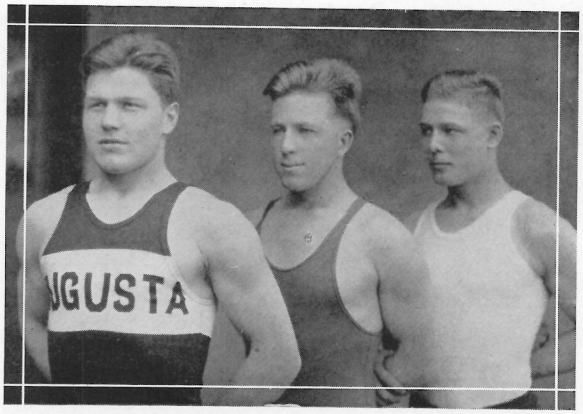

GALL THOMAS, W. WRIGHT, F. WATERS BERNIER

Western High School furnished some of the prettiest basketball we have been privileged to see, in a tight game, which they managed to win 24-26. The battle was extremely exciting. The score see-sawed back and forth all through the contest, and wasn't definitely decided until the final whistle blew and found Western two points ahead.

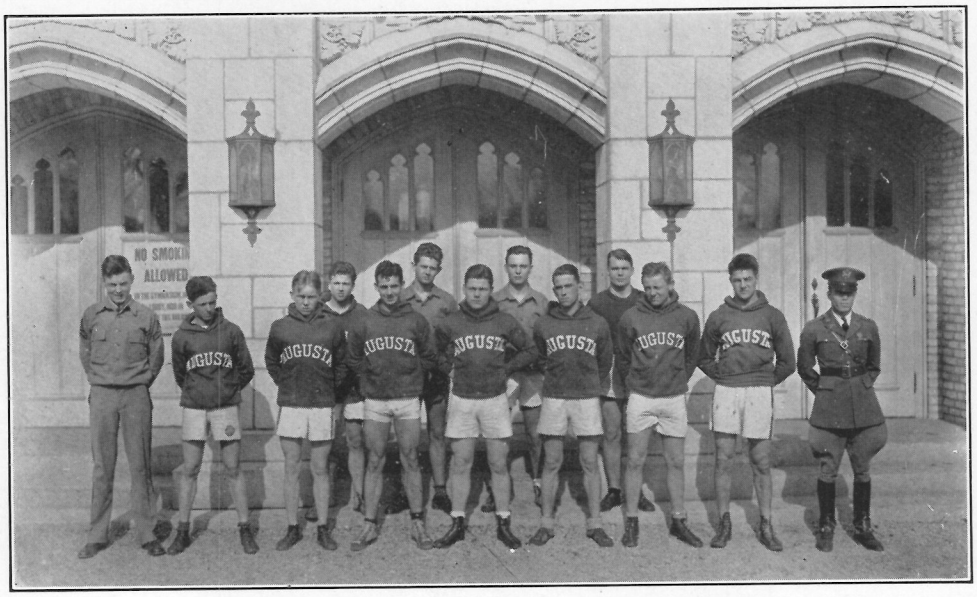

Our two defeats at the hands of Fishburne capped the bottle of hard luck. In both games the Blue team was ahead at the end of the first quarter, but the pace was too strong and they bowed to a greatly superior team. Basketball, we believe, has been slighted by the corps in previous years. The interest has been lacking. The thrill of this greatest of all sports has lain wholly in winning. We have never had the players or the spirit that makes the real basketball squad. It has always been a lukewarm sport. This year, everything was there, the players, the coaches, the spirit, and the interest. Yet the season was a distinct failure. One vital element was lacking—co-ordination, the knack of knowing what to do and when to do it. They hadn't that breath-taking speed and accuracy which makes the game beautiful to watch. Their defense and offense was ragged, their timing was poor, yet they were fighters to a man. There is just one remedy to these faults—"EXPERIENCE." The present team will be back practically en masse next year, and we feel sure that they will have a red letter season.

The squad showed remarkable grit. Their spirit in defeat was beyond compare. They fought to the finish in each and every game, and the corps stood by them to a man. We are privileged to give them praise of the highest degree. . . . They were good losers.

MORE interest was taken in boxing this year than ever before. Perhaps because the squad had such a successful season. Augusta won four out of the five meets fought and gained six points in the South Atlantic Meet. Losing the only dual meet to the United States Military Academy Plebes, the team won from Fishburne, Breenbrier, V. M. I. "rats," and Blackstone. A. M. A. had the honor of entertaining the first South Atlantic Prep School Meet held at any Prep School. Although the Blue and White did not emerge victorious they should be congratulated on the six points gained with competition as strong as it was. Coach Rogers and Captain Powell deserve all praise for piloting the team through a season so triumphant as the past.

On January the twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, Augusta opened the season by defeating Fishburne 4-2 in the new gymnasium. The hosts plainly showed superior boxing skill in every bout. Davilla, our seldom defeated 115 pound fighter, started the season off on the right foot, by technically knocking out his opponent in the second round. Looken kept the meet going the same direction and won from Hughes by a Judge's decision. Bougeois and McClung, both put up nice exhibitions and also won by decisions. Captain Powell and Brumbaugh encountered unusual opposition and lost by decisions, but each bout went four rounds, and then then the decisions were very close. Davilla's fight was the highlight of the meet.

Traveling to Greenbrier on the following Saturday, the team battled their way through seven hard fought bouts and won four of them. Davilla came through in his usual fine style to once more lay his man face down on the rosin.

Locken accounted for another of the wins by winning from Essex in a four round decision. The mountaineers took the next three bouts by decisions. Captain Powell evened up the count with a T. K. O. over his 165 pound opponent. The final bout featured Brumbaugh. The judges called for an extra round but Greenbrier was found wanting after the third round and so the fight was forfeited to Augusta. Though three fights were lost, never has an A. M. A. boxing team shown up any better than on that evening.

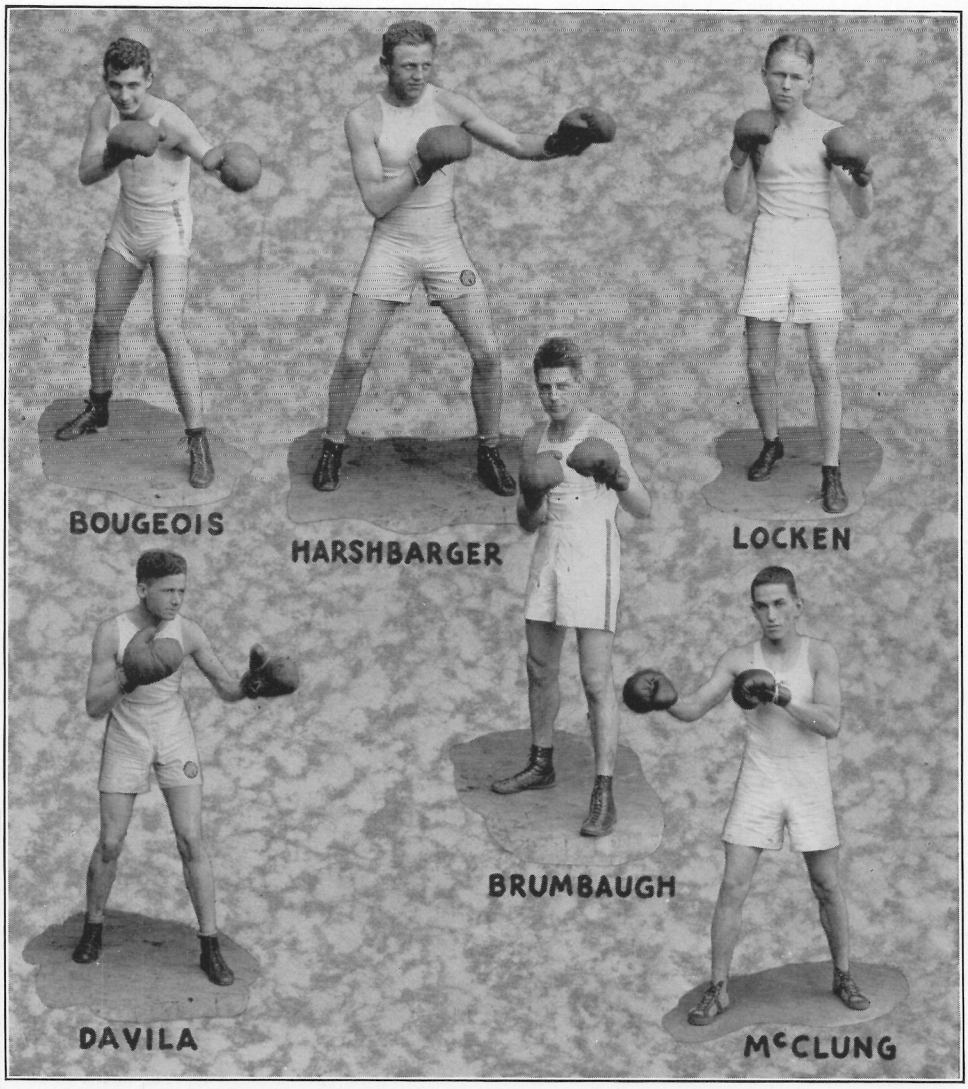

On February the seventh the team entertained Blackstone Military Academy at Fort Defiance and A. M. A. proved to be very ungenerous hosts as they carried the meet to the tune of 5½ to 1½. All of the fights were exceptionally good, two of them going four rounds. Davilla won by a T. K. O., his third for the year. Locken gained one more point for the home team with the decision falling in his favor. Bougeois stepped to the front in superb style by taking a decision. The thrill of the evening, however, was in order when "Keno" Harshbarger threw his 155 pounds behind a haymaker from the floor and completely K. O.'d his opponent in the first round. It took Brumbauh four rounds but the bout was his. "Stag" did his best but he could do no more than gain a draw in four rounds, and A. M. A. lost the last fight. Just one more feather in the Blue and White hat.

The V. M. I. Freshmen were defeated at Augusta the next Saturday. Four T. K. O.'s featured the evening as A. M. A. won five bouts and lost only one. Davilla's fight was the feature bout. The little 115 pounder fought one of his best fights winning a technical knockout over Rogers of V. M. I., in the second round and Locken helped to keep up the good work by winning a decision. Quisenberry, W., fighting for Augusta for the first time this season, was the victim of a storm of blows and lost. McClung, Brumbaugh, Powell, and Harshbarger all won in the heavier weights. The papers described the bouts of Powell and Harshbarger as amusing. Each had opponents who towered above them in height and were larger in every respect. However, both won and that is all that mattered.

On February the twenty-eighth, the much looked-forwarded-to trip to the United States Military Academy arrived. The difference between the Northern and Southern intercollegiate boxing rules proved to be an obstacle too great for the Virginians to overcome because the Plebes triumphanted 5 to 2. However, the team had done its best so the stain on an otherwise clear season was not so black. Davilla once more won by a T. K. O. in the second round. Brumbaugh was the only other Augusta man who was not defeated, winning a three round decision. Although the other weights were lost to the Plebes, all of the bouts were well worth the price of admission.

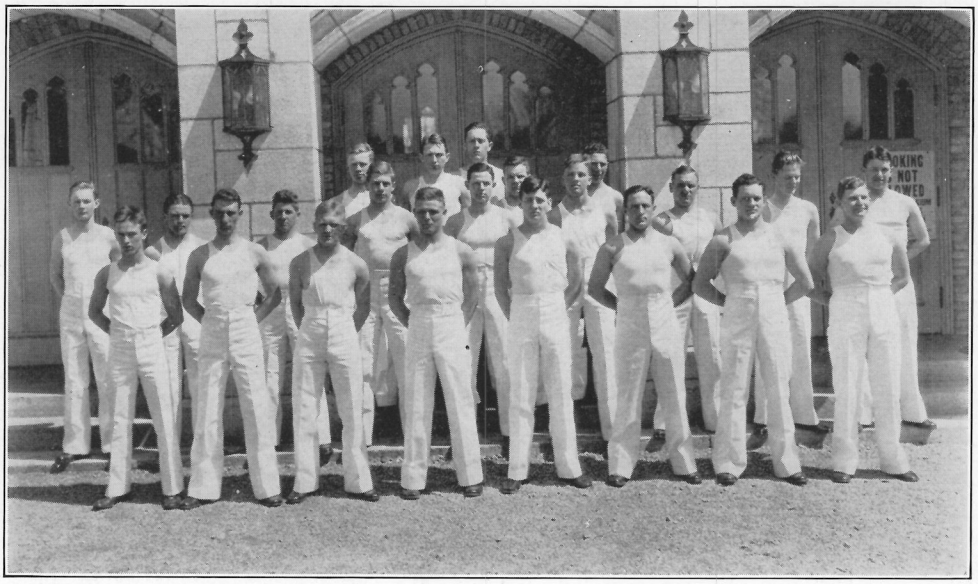

The South Atlantic Tournament, held on March the sixth and seventh, was heartbreaking to all who expected A. M. A. to win. The team seemed to lose all of their stamina after the quarter finals. Aside from the fact that Augusta lost, the tournament was a well managed, successful affair. Davilla, Locken, McClung, Brumbaugh, and Powell went to the semi-finals and Davilla and Brumbaugh accounted for the six points in the finals. Next year we hope that A. M. A. may once more hold the tournament and from it gain the championship.

Next year's season will be even more successful than the past one. The boxing spirit that you of Augusta, team of nineteen hundred and thirty-one have given the corps will long remain and each succeeding year will produce a wonderful team.

"To the victors belong the spoils." So, to Captain Rogers is accorded the unstinted praise, the immeasurable gratitude of the school as the whole and the team in particular, for their tireless, unselfish efforts and brilliant results obtained in this boxing season.

Wrestling

SINCE wrestling received a permanent place in school athletics, A. M. A. has had some good seasons, but of them all, the 1931 season was the best. With three men from last year's squad and, of them a letter man, Coach Denton produced a team that won the State Prep School Championship of North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia. Fortunately, no serious injuries hindered the team's progress. The only match that was lost was to the V. M. I. Freshmen and that by the close score of 16-11. Such a season and such a team deserves all the credit that can be given it.

The Blue team's first was Charleston (W. Va.) High School who carried back to the mountains a 25-13 defeat. A. M. A. took five out of eight bouts by "falls," losing only three, one, by a time advantage. Preston put the shoulders of his opponent on the mat in the short time of two minutes and forty seconds, while Captain Eanes downed his man by a pretty exhibition of wrestling, in three minutes and fifty-eight and one-half seconds. Charleston had won from all the good teams in its own state and had started an invasion of Virginia but A. M. A. nipped its highest hopes in the bud.

Augusta traveled to Lexington to wrestle the V. M. I. Freshmen for the second meet of the year. The "studs" from the Institute proved to be the stronger in several weights and the visitors lost. "Dee" Nuckols, wrestling under the Blue and White for the first time, won his bout in the unlimited class by a fall, the only fall A. M. A. gained. Miles and Preston, wrestling in the 125 and 155 pound classes respectively, won their bouts by time advantages while Captain Eanes was held to a draw by his 145 pound opponent. Realizing that V. M. I. was the stronger and more experienced team and that it represented a college, this one defeat was not so heart-breaking.

Losing to V. M. I. acted as an impetus to the wrestling team. It did its work so well that when A. M. A. met Blackstone M. A., soon after, the latter was whitewashed 30-0. Two of the bouts were won by falls and the rest gained three points apiece for time advantages, except the unlimited class which was forfeited to Augusta. Captain Eanes came through in his usual fine style to win his bout by a fall. Moueson, for Blackstone, although he was defeated both times, showed unusual stamina by wrestling two bouts.

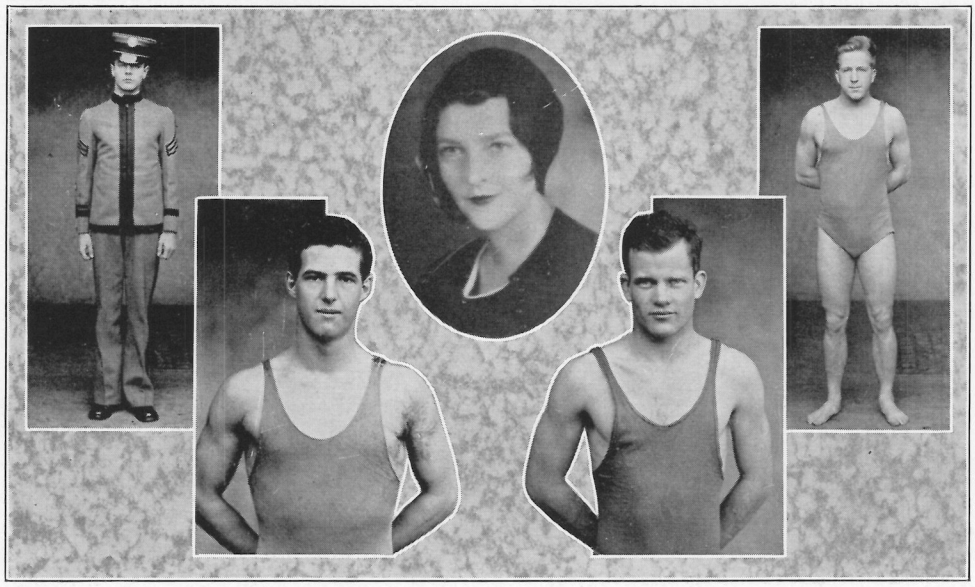

The only object which then blocked the drive toward the State Championship was Woodberry Forest. The Woodberry team met at Fort Defiance the following week-end and was defeated 29-5. Four falls accounted for twenty points on the Augusta side of the score board. Clarke, E., floored his man in the short time of one minute and fifty seconds. Tessier carried off Woodberry's only honor by throwing Nuckols in the unlimited class.

The climax of the season came on February the twenty-third, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, when Augusta met and defeated Durham (N. C.) High School, 34-5. The winning of this meet meant the annexing of the North Caroline Prep Wrestling Championship title to that of West Virginia and Virginia. The only point D. H. S. gained was through the 105 pound class, which was forfeited. Miles surprised the crowd by pinning his opponent's shoulder to the mat in twelve seconds. Captain Froitune of D. H. S., was defeated for the first time in three years of wrestling by Captain Eanes. All of the bouts were good and the "Tarheels" fought to the finish.

To those of you who have wrestled under the Blue and White during this past season, we sing praises. A. M. A. will not soon forget such a brilliant season as you have given her.

Swimming Resume

THE 1930 swimming season was marred by two defeats. The Virginia Frosh were our only conquerors in a dual meet, while Fishburne and Massanutten triumphed in the State meet. All of these teams the mermen had beaten earlier in the season. Captain Dean had one letter man, around which to build his team, Barnes, star breast stroke man and diver. From last year's squad came Graves in the dives, Thomas and King in the fifty and hundred yard dashes, Fitch, Dillard and Roulette in the two twenty-yard dashes, and Adams and Hargreave in the back stroke. The men who came to the fore from the new material were Starr in the breast stroke and Jones, D. L. in the backstroke and dashes.

On January 24th, Washington and Lee Frosh met a crushing 24-42 defeat at the hands of the Blue Clad mermen in the A. M. A. pool. Thomas, of Augusta, was the high scorer with twelve points. Fitch was next with seven points.

The navigators journeyed to Massanutten on the twenty-sixth and won an easy 26-40 victory. Austerlin, of Massanutten turned in some fine tunes in the forty and hundred yard dashes. Captain Barnes set a new pool record of 27 seconds flat for the forty yard breaststroke. Barnes was also high point man with eight points.

After eleven days Augusta again defeated Massanutten 25-21 in the A. M. A. pool. Austerlin, of Massanutten starred, winning both the hundred and fifty yard dashes. Captain Barnes topped the list with eight points.

Roulette; Jones, D. L., Thomas, F.; Fitch; King

On February the fifth, the corps witnessed one of the most thrilling meets ever held in A. M. A.'s pool. The blue mermen fought a courageous uphill battle against the crack undefeated team of the University of Virginia. The outcome remained in doubt even after the final event. The score was 33-33 (Augusta won on first places). Fitch was the high point man with twelve points. Captain Barnes suffered his first defeat of two years in the State of Virginia when Morris won the breast stroke by a good margin.

The next week the tankmen defeated W. and L. on their own hunting ground by the score of 21-45. The meet was even more of a walk away than the first one, A. M. A. taking all except one first place. Thomas was out in front with twelve points.

On February 12th, Fishburne bowed to the blue clad mermen to the tune of 27-39 in the Fishburne pool. A. M. A. took five first places to their opponent's two. Captain Barnes led the list with eight points.

On February 16th, University of Virginia proceeded to exact a sweet and lasting vengeance in their own pool, by winning from our navigators with the score of 37-27. The meet wasn't quite as closely contested as the previous one, yet each team fought to the last stroke. Morrison of Virginia broke the pool record in the breast stroke—time 32.1. The state meet rolled around on February 28th with A. M. A. primed for victory. Massanutten and Fishburne both seemed to feel the same, while Augusta was perfectly capable of beating either of these two teams in a dual meet, their combined forces sufficed to bring victory to them both with nineteen points each to Augusta's eighteen. This is the first state meet ever to be held in the State of Virginia. The records made will stand as state records until bettered.

The track team this year started out with very small prospects, having only one letter man from the team of '30, but even with this small foundation, by hard work and the excellent coaching under Captain Yates, the team quickly developed far past all expectations. Captain "Windy" Bowman, the one letter man, continued his excellent record in the mile and half-mile, going undefeated throughout the season. Charles Graves did excellent work in the high and low hurdles and broad jump. Shaver and Bougeois developed into a well teamed pair of sprinters. Sigafoos and Jones, D., were the high flyers of the team.

Brumbaugh and Sigafoos were certain in the shot-put, and could be relied on for first and second in the discus and javelin.

WIGLEY MEYERS THOMAS, F. PAYNE GRAVES

SHAVER SIGAFOOS OLIVE JONES, D. L. BOUGEOIS

The opening meet of the season was with the Greenbrier Military Academy in the Clay Bowl, and though it resulted in a defeat for Augusta by one point, it showed that the team had great prospects, making up with sheer determination for its lack of ability.

In summing up this meet we can account for the victory because of the superior ability of Bowman, Graves, and Sigafoos in winning six first places for Augusta.

The next victim to fall to defeat in the path of the Augusta tracksters was Hargrave Military Academy. The Keydets proved too powerful for the Hargrave men, and won to the overwhelming score of 67½ to 49½.

On May 16th the Augusta track team entered the South Atlantic Track Tournament which is sponsored by The Order of the Grail at the University of North Carolina. This tournament is an annual event to which the ten best preparatory track teams in the South-Atlantic portion of the United States are invited. Augusta has been a contestant in this meet every year since its origin five years ago and has not failed to rank among the four highest places as yet and has won the trophy once.

This year we sent eight men to the tournament and they brought back a third place for Augusta with a total of sixteen points.

They fought hard throughout the contest giving every opponent a hard race and retaining for A. M. A. the distinction of being among the first.

Captain "Windy" Bowman led the race in the mile run coming in far ahead of the other contestants and missing the record by only two seconds. He ran the mile with excellent time of four minutes, forty and five-tenths seconds. He tied the record in the half mile run again leaving the others far behind.

"Shorty" Graves, our assistant captain, flashed over the low hurdles and came in with a breath taking second place. Only the judges at the tape were able to ascertain whether he broke the tape or came second.

Sigafoos, our old standby in the pole vault earned a second place by going over the bar at eleven feet three inches. He also took a fourth place in the discus throw.

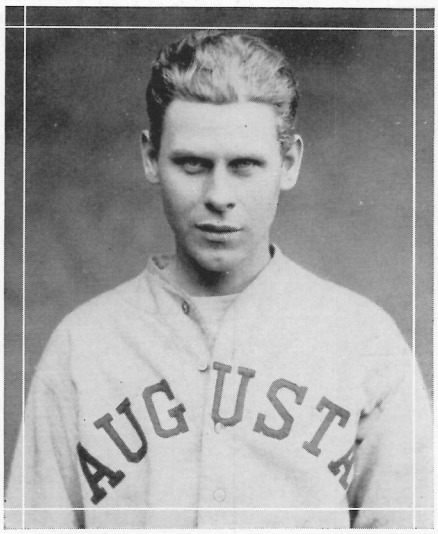

In the two hundred and twenty yard dash Shaver of Augusta brought back a close fourth place.

The final score showed that Staunton Military Academy had won the trophy with a score of forty points, Riverside Military was second with twenty points, Augusta third with sixteen points and Danville Military Institute fourth with fifteen points.

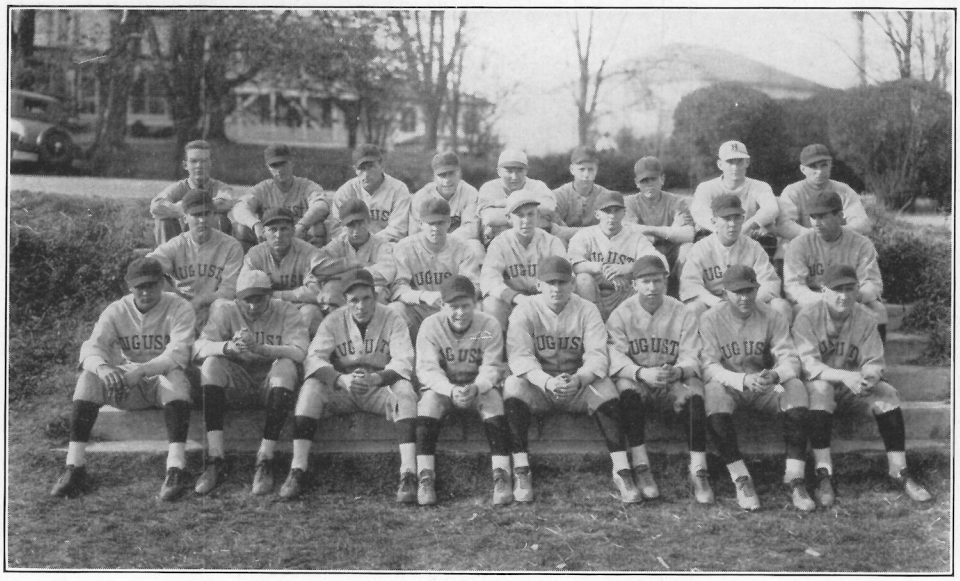

When we take into consideration the material that Captain Yates, coach of the team, had at the start of the season, we must say that the team of Thirty-one is one of the most outstanding teams that Augusta has ever had. They owe this record to the brilliant work of Graves, Bowman, Sigafoos, and Shaver.

We hope that wherever these men may go, they will bestow as high honors upon their Alma Mater as they have upon Augusta.

The horizon of baseball for Augusta has never appeared brighter. Only one short slump dims its brightness, and now the team has resumed its successful stride and there seems not a doubt but that the few remaining games will be successfully tucked away in the blue and white bat-bag. A superb pitching staff, backed by a fast and sure infield and a fly-catching outfield, makes a combination that seldom can be beaten. Captain Hull, as coach, has introduced a brand of baseball and a spirit of team work that helps to strengthen this combination. When the big guns open up at the plate, the spectators think of the battle of the Marne, and there are nine big guns in every line-up. The team has lived up to the highest expectations of the corps, and they deserve Augusta's heartiest congratulations.

GLOVER HARRIS KELLER BARNES VAN PELT

The Blue nine walked off with the first four games with an ease that was surprising. Winning from S. C. I., V. M. I. Rats, Virginia Episcopal School, and Washington and Lee Freshmen. V. E. S. proved to be the hard nut to crack, but it was cracked with the close score of 3-2. Van Pelt toiled in the box for the first time this season, and allowed the visitors three hits and was credited with nine strikeouts. Augusta was held to three hits also, but used them a little more advantageously. Keller was the stick man of the afternoon, getting two of the three hits. The college nines proved to be easy meat, and all were beaten by large scores. Glover's circuit clout in the eighth inning of the Virginia game with three men on base provided a thrill for that afternoon.

Episcopal High School proved to be a jinx that put Augusta in the short slump of the season. The game was lost in the eighth inning when succession of errors let in six runs to tie the score seven all. E. H. S. made one more in the tenth to win the game, 8-7. For the next game, Fishburne had for its lucky day, one of the coldest days of the year. It was not baseball weather, and consequently Augusta could not play baseball. They fought hard, but lost, 11-4. Better times are coming, though—watch the blue team when they play the return game.

The West Virginia air cleared the cloud for a moment, for Augusta easily brought in twenty runs to Greenbrier's three, in five innings. The following two games were lost, however, the first to W. and L. by superb pitching, and the second to V. P. I. Rats by superior hitting strength.

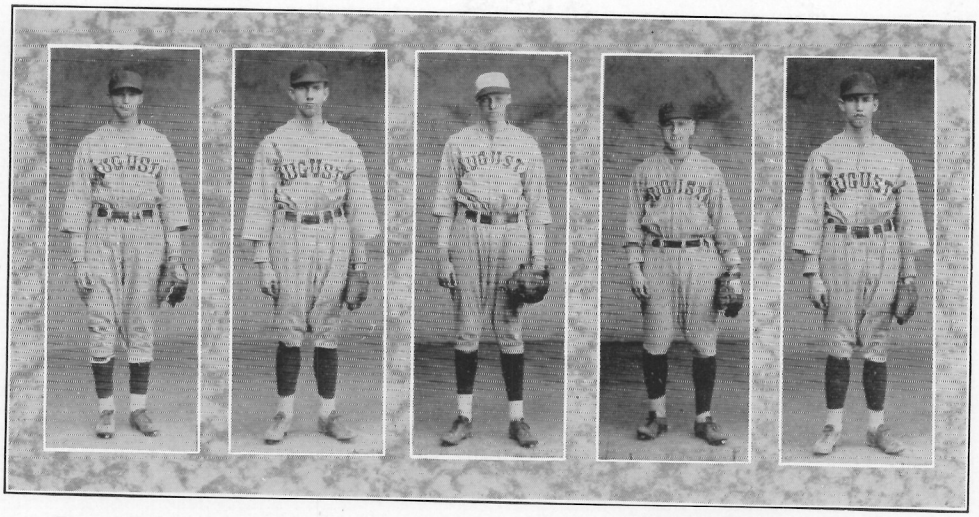

Well back in stride, the team took Fork Union into camp, 8-5. Harris was the tower of hitting strength, getting a home run, a double, and a single out of four trips to the plate.

The Woodberry game proved to be almost a practice game. Augusta scored thirteen men in one frame, the sixth, which helped toward making the final score 22-2 in their favor. There seemed to be nine individual stars on the team that afternoon, yet they played together with perfect team work. Van Pelt emerged with twelve strikeouts added to his pitching record.

Greenbrier came east to play A. M. A. at Fort Defiance in a return game. Their invasion of the home territory was not quite strong enough, and again they were defeated, but by a much smaller score, 6-1. Sutton allowed four hits, and he had wonderful support all through the game. Four double plays were made in the course of the game, Augusta being accredited with three. Harris surprised the crowd by poling two long homers in two times at bat.

The V. M. I. Rats were no more fortunate the second time than the first, being defeated on May 11th, 10-6. Bruce pitched a steady, dependable game, and was given wonderful support, both in the field and at the plate.

Now, let us look, for a moment, on the men who have made Augusta's 1931 baseball team so successful,

WHITEHEAD SUTTON SHOMO SCHNEIDER HARRISON

A staff of six dependable pitchers, always the backbone of a victorious baseball team, Bruce, Van Pelt, Harris, and Sutton are the ranking four, with Harrison and Boxley acting as superior relief pitchers. These pitchers were always given something to throw at, for behind the pan was one made perfect by much experience, Shreckhise. No more fitting tribute can be paid his ability than to predict that he will rise to great baseball fame. Jones and Shomo share honors on first base, being about equal in fielding, but Jones having the advantage with the stick. Keller had no equal when it comes to covering the territory in the vicinity of second. He stars both in the field and at the bat, hitting 483 so far. Sutton covers the short field, and seldom does he err. When he takes his turn in the box, his place is very capably filled by Merry. Bill Glover gambols around the "hot corner." From slow rolling bunts to cannon ball daisy clippers, he handles them all, and his bullet-throw to first nabs the batsman every time. Left field is usually covered by Clarke, and seldom is a fly dropped in that vicinity. Whitehead, out in center garden, is perhaps the most reliable man in the field that is on the team. When some unlucky opposing batsman heads a ball in that direction, he usually finds it unsuccessful to even move towards first. One of the hard hitting pitchers, whose box-work was not needed, holds down the right pasture, Harris and Bruce doing most of the alternating. Kelsey is most successful as a utility man. He is able to hold down any position on the field in a very efficient manner. Schneider and Barnes deserve praise for their work throughout the season.

The men that have been mentioned in this attempt to honor the team, and some others who have not been included, deserve to wear the Augusta major monogram for baseball with pride. They have been members of a team whose perfect spirit of organization was most admirable. They belonged to a group of nine men who played every game as a whole and who worked perfectly together. They have brought fame and honor to the name Augusta, and the memory of the 1931 baseball team will linger forever.

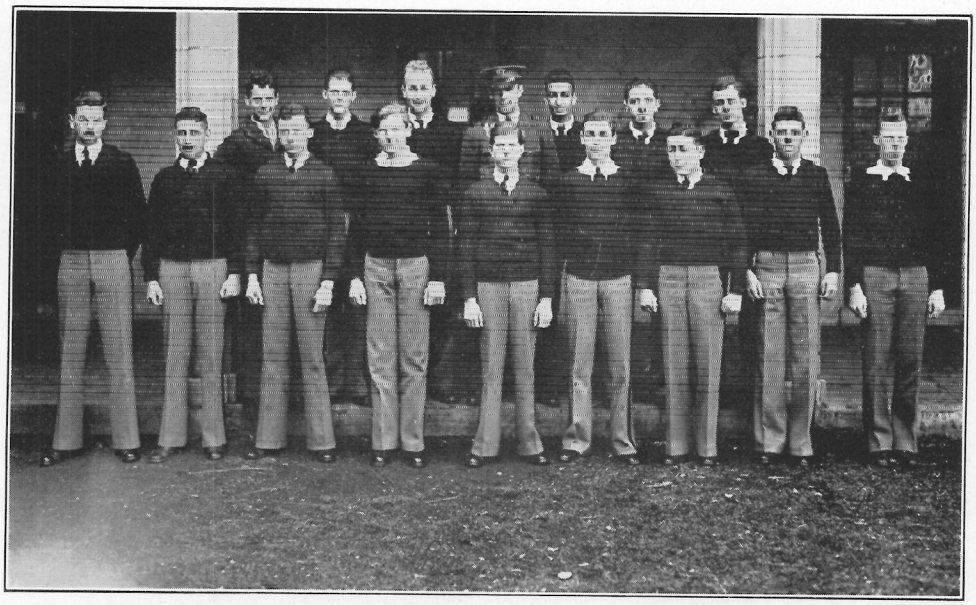

Our Athletes

WE, OF THE CORPS, wish to express our deep and most sincere appreciation to those men who have represented Augusta in the fields of Sport. By their deeds on the gridiron, the diamond, or in any of the branches of athletics, they have distinguished both themselves and the school.

Sacrificing time and pleasures, they toiled in daily practice; building up teams that were hard to defeat. Nor were their efforts in vain for their reputation of skill and of being clean sports is one of which we are justly proud. They represent the spirit of the Corps; never weakening no matter how great the odds.

They are responsible for the bright side of Barracks life and their activities and accomplishments release us from the dullness of the routine that goes along with military life.

The past season has been one of success regardless of the handicap of having few letter men back. The teams also suffered by the loss of valuable men due to injuries received in practice and in games. But by constant hard work they overcame this loss and finished the season with enviable records. The honor of the school has been placed in their keeping and they have raised it to high levels. Again we express to them our feeling of utmost gratitude due those who have labored under difficulties and overcome them with renown.

Tiger Resume

The tiger team is the means by which the varsity material is made. Since their organization the Tigers have always turned out excellent teams and have developed wonderful players for the Varsity.

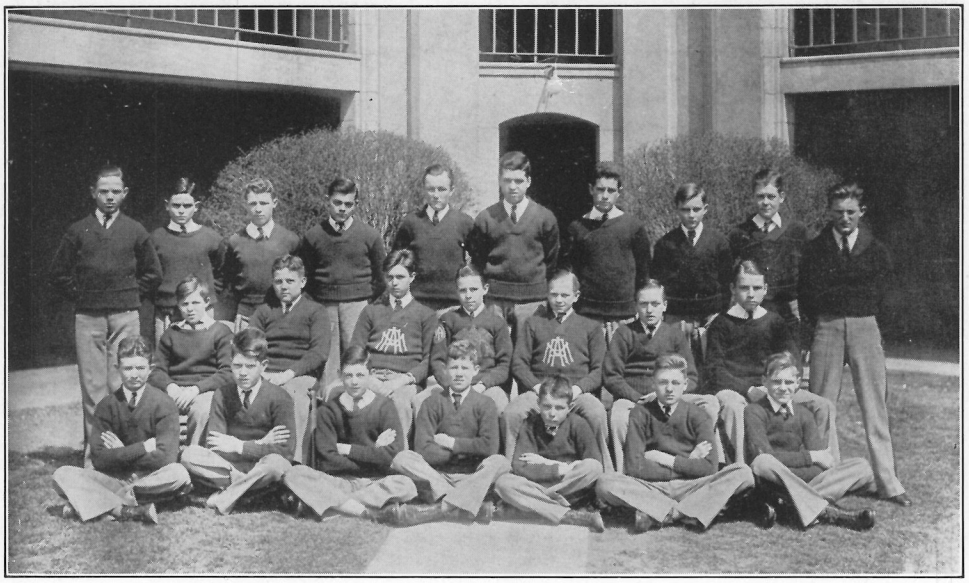

Under Captain Ott's splendid supervision the Tigers have gone through many hard fought battles and have won a lot of credit to him for turning out such good teams.

The season's football team had a full schedule and only one game was lost during the whole season. One of the greatest victories of the season was the defeat of the second team of Fishburne.

Although the average weight of the team was light the Tigers made up for it in their fighting ability. Under the leadership of Captain Rosenstock the tigers overcame heavy odds to defeat teams which outweighed them several pounds to the man.

Rangely at center was a very efficient man and deserves a lot of credit for his part in making the plays precise. Miller, C., and Goldberg held down the guards like old veterans at the game. McEwan and Rosenstock at the tackles held in many tight pinches aided by Payne and Herring, the ends. As a snappy quarterback none could rival Boon. Merry and Waters were sure ground gainers, aided by Bougeois, who was exceptionally fast on end runs. They were a combination hard to beat.

We are hoping there will be many boys back next year to hold up the good reputation of the Tigers. We feel sure that Captain Ott will turn out many successful teams as he has in the past.

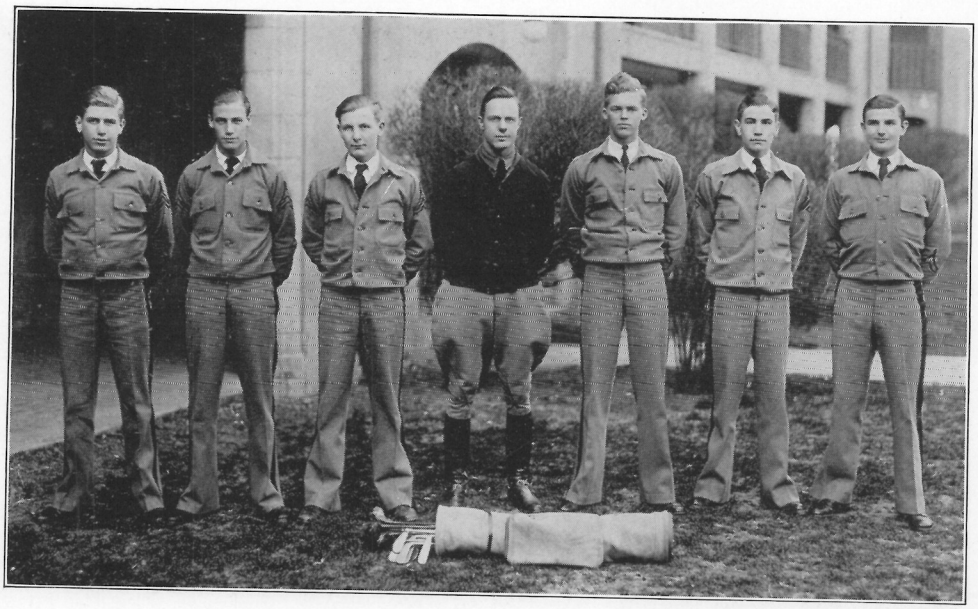

Minnow Resume

To learn the joys of clean athletics with its benefits of co-operation, small self denials, hard spots and soft spots, which mean ultimately comradship and a deeper understanding of your associates while you are yet very small and have your foot on the bottom rung of the ladder which leads to the big team—the team selected to play the game called Life—is indeed an inestimable benefit to any youngster. Our minnows get this benefit.

Under the capable guidance of Captain Hodges and Captain Rodgers Augusta is represented in football, basketball, boxing and baseball by teams very appropriately called the minnows. Practically every one of our smaller cadets is a member or applicant for membership on one or more of these teams. They meet teams of their own weight and age in all the above sports and always give an excellent account of themselves.

Incidentally, two of the best quarterbacks that ever wore the Blue of the Varsity football team were once minnows at Augusta.

Even though Golf at Augusta is not a principle sport there are many boys who show great interest in the game. In the spring during the afternoon one may see numerous cadets practicing in the rear of barracks. Although, there are few facilities to encourage the sport the boys keep improving all the time.

The most important event of the golf season is the State Tournament for Virginia Prep Schools held at Woodberry. Augusta will send two men to the tournament and we are sure they will make a good showing.

Major Roller has taken much interest in the team and appointed Grier as the captain so that someone could encourage the cadets to play and to get together a good team to represent Augusta in the tournament.

Although we do not have a golf course here at school we are sure that in the near future Augusta will possess one which will be a credit to the school.

Captain Yates is the faculty adviser and coach, who has shown much interest in promoting the game.

In no other pastime is the interest so close, so intense, or so concentrated as in fencing, and in no other is the expenditure of muscular exertion and headwork so nicely proportioned. Here the opponents are in actual touch with each other; the delicate rod of steel in their grasp instantaneously responds to the brain. Every faculty of the brain, every muscle of the body, every nerve of the eye and hand, all must be on the alert. The opponents live more intensely and more vividly in an assault of a quarter of an hour than most people do in a week. It can easily be seen that all this must give the body grace, ease, and suppleness, and must enable the brain to make decisions with lightning speed.

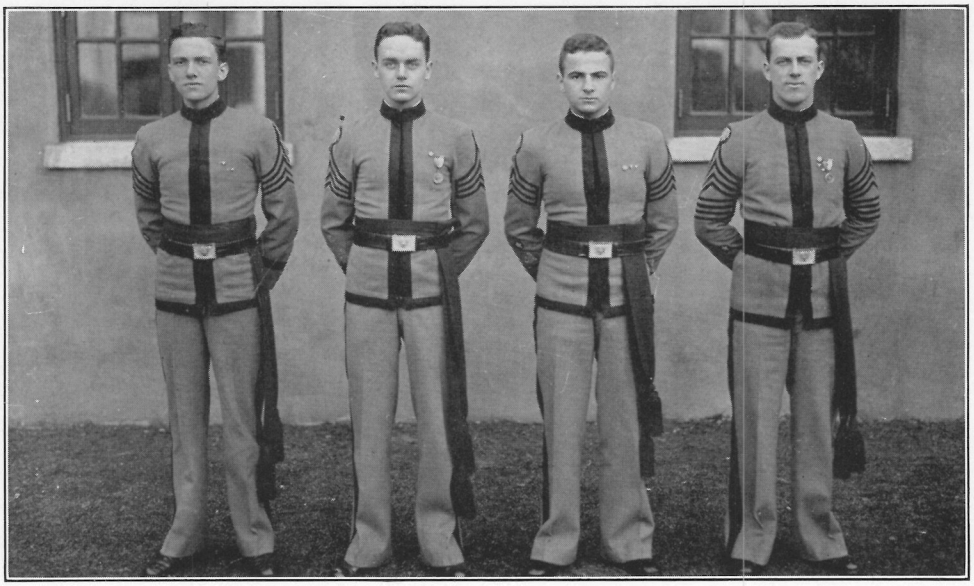

Although this sport is ancient in its origin, it was not until recent years that prep schools realized its great value. Augusta was among the first to organize a team. The idea was conceived in nineteen hundred and twenty-six by Major E. S. Yates, and with the co-operation of the school, a team was organized.

When the call for tryouts was put forth this year, twenty-eight aspirants responded. Under Major Yates' skilled coaching, nine of these men developed a team worthy of great note. The team consisted of the following men: Dunk, Everhart, Glasser, Grawl, Hively, Minor, Spengler, Williams, M., and Young, S.

We Do Not Court Popularity
but
We Do Place Service Above Self
and Loyalty Next to Godliness.

To gain a membership in this fraternity is every cadet's ambition. In obtaining this award, one must have the highest of character, morals, and ideals. The election is held in June each year by the ten members of the faculty who have served the Academy the longest. They cast their votes for the ten cadets whom they think most worthy and deserving of the honor. The ten cadets receiving the highest number of votes become members of the Ad Astra Per Astra Fraternity.

From the first day when school opened until the last day, the "Y" proved itself to be Augusta's outstanding organization.

Under the competent leadership of Captain Webb and President Barnes, the cabinet was selected. At first the "arm band committee," called so because they wore blue bands with the letters "Y. M. C. A." on their arms, acted as a bureau of information for the new cadets. This group, also, visited the homesick boys and tried to boost them up. Handbooks were distributed and numerous other deeds were performed to help the new and bewildered "rats" to get started.

Some of the outstanding programs at the "Y" included talks by Mrs. Mott Martin, missionary to Africa, and Mr. R. H. Kinney, general secretary of the "Y. M. C. A." in Staunton. Musical programs were also sponsored by the "Y." Among these were the Hampton Quartet, from Hampton Institute, students from the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind, and The One Hundred and Seventy-Sixth Field Artillery Band under the leadership of Lieutenant L. C. Cervone. The best and the most colorful of all the programs was the Christmas meeting, at which time a collection amounting to upwards of one hundred dollars was collected for the Christmas dinner of the Presbyterian Orphanage Home in Lynchburg.

The following were the members of the Cabinet: Hundley, Hunt, McClung, Hildebrand, Boxley, C., Carlton, Graves, Moffett, Martin, W., Bradford, Wright, H., Guthrie, and Jester.

Major Roller has conducted for many years a literary society, which is both entertaining and beneficial. Programs which contain debates, declamations, and readings are put on each week, and are presided over by the student officers. There has been more interest shown by the corps this year along this line of activity than any other of the past. This, perhaps, is due to the fact that the programs were always well arranged, and equally well presented. Through this society, Major Roller has taught the use of Parliamentary laws, which should prove valuable to every one in years to come. We wish to take this opportunity to thank those who took part in making the programs successful, and last but not least, Major, who has always been helpful in giving constructive criticism.

Cotillion Club

The dances at Augusta have long been outstanding in Prep school circles, and without a doubt this year's have been no exception to the rule. This year's Informals have been better than those of past years, perhaps. It is true that we didn't have as many, but there were certainly more girls present. The Formal Hops, we have heard from reliable sources, were equal to those of many colleges.

We were very fortunate in having a fine school orchestra, which chased the "Blues" away eight times during the past year.

To the able direction of the Cotillion Club officers the cadets owe part of the success of the dances, and to Major Roller, who was always willing to extend the time limit of the dances and who helped us a great deal with the fine decorations.

The Opening Hop was coincident with a victory in football over Massanutten. The music was furnished by "Russ Yoke and His Californians." This hop was led by Cadet Captain W. C. Lambert and Miss Frances McCormick; the assistant leaders were Cadet Captain J. M. Hundley and Miss Mary Shemwell.

The Thanksgiving Hop came with the football banquet. This was led by Cadet Captain F. M. Hargreave, Jr., and Miss Lizora Schoolfield. The music for this dance was furnished by Izzy Cervone and his "Pittsburgh Serenaders."

The Mid-winter Hop came during the dull part of the year. The leaders were Cadet Lieutenant T. T. Spengler and Miss Rene Graves, and the assistant leaders were Captain W. C. Lambert and Miss Frances McCormick.

The Easter Hop will long live in the hearts of the cadets as being one of the best dances ever held at A. M. A.. These were led by Cadet Captain J. M. Hundley and Miss Orpah Clements, and Cadet Captain F. M. Hargreave, Jr., and Miss Hilton Roller.

As the final ball is run under a different management, we don't wish to steal any of their thunder, but we feel certain that if the dances in the future compare with this year's, more power to the future Cotillion Clubs.

Final Ball

As the shadows of the session of 1930-31 closed in, our memories were stamped with the remembrance of the most successful and colorful final ball in the history of Augusta.

The success of the ball, however, was due to the hard work of our President, John M. Hundley, assisted by the committee. It, by all means, lived up to our highest expectations. The gym was very beautifully decorated with huge palms, refreshments were served, and the softened lights lent a very pleasant aspect to the scene.

One of the main features of the ball was the excellent music of Jack Wardlaw and his Carolina Tar Heels. We felt very lucky indeed in securing one of the best college orchestras in the country.

The band was rendering a soft march as the officers' figure got under way. The spotless white dresses of the girls blended with the grey and gold of the cadets' uniforms and brought forth a sight most exquisite. After the last formation was completed, lovely favors were presented to the girls taking part. The figure was led by Cadet Captain John M. Hundley and Miss Lottie Markham Hundley, assisted by Cadet Captain and Adjutant Frank M. Hargreave, Jr., and Miss Frances Hobson, and Cadet Captain William C. Lambert and Miss Frances McCormick. It was one of the prettiest and best executed figures that A. M. A. has ever seen, due to the unceasing efforts of Major W. S. Robinson, and in no small measure to the space our new gym affords.

As the thunderous applause died away, the orchestra broke into a red-hot stomp and the couples gradually filled the floor, gently swaying in time with the music. The gym rang with merry laughter and conversations of the cadets and their favorite ones. The hours and minutes quickly fled, taking with them happy moments and memories that may never return again. The leaders' whistle blew for a "Special," each lucky cadet enjoyed a few minutes of rapturous pleasure. The whistle sounded again as the "stags" cut in. More than one cadet unwillingly gave up his partner.

The dark shadows of night began to be slowly dispersed, and as the faint rays of light shone through the windows of the gym the orchestra broke into the sweet old strains of "Home, Sweet Home." When the last sweet strains of music had died away, everyone agreed that it had been a wonderful and unrivaled success.

It is only proper that we thank the members of the committee, John H. Hundley, President; Frank M. Hargreave, Jr., Vice-President; W. C. Lambert; and members, E. Hildebrand, E. C. Nuckols, and C. Barnes, for their untiring work

Motto: A rolling trash can gathers twenty night tours.

Hundley says: "Every time I kiss my girl, I am reminded of that old advertising slogan: 'The flavor lasts.' She's Wrigly, too."

Captain Hull (on trip to Europe after falling overboard): "Hey, Willis, give a yell, will you?"
Captain Willis: "Sure. Rah, rah, rah!"

Salicrup: "Do you think I'll ever be able to do anything with my voice?"
Spengler: "Might come in handy in case of a fire."

Nuchols: "What is the difference between dancing and rasslin'?"
Moffett: "In rasslin' some holds are barred."

Wertheimer: "Did you hear of the terrible disaster that befell poor Payton Boon?"
Bew: "Heavens, no. What happened to Boon?"
Wertheimer: "Mother Mac gave him an alcohol rub, and Boon broke his neck trying to lick it off."

Hargreave: "Do you mind if I kiss you?"
Frances: "Not if you do it without waking up the whole house."

Goodloe: "Fools throw kisses."
Hundley: "Yeh, but the wise man delivers them in person."

Webber: "Bew must be some sheik. Says he keeps an alphabetical list of all the girls he knows."
Spengler: "Yeh, and Miss Zimmerman heads the list."

Cloud: "How large is a whale?"
Jacob: "What kind of a whale?"
Cloud: "Oh, a big whale."
Jacob: "How big?"

Captain Hull: "Does the moon affect the tide?"
Jacques, R.: "No, only the untied."

She: "What activities were you in at school?"
Sizer: "I turned out for R. O. T. C."
She: "Oh, and did you make anything out of it?"
Sizer: "Y'bet. I finished on the first squad."

Nervous Passenger (in airplane 500 feet above the earth): "What are you laughing at, Pilot?"
Pilot: "I'm just laughing at the superintendent. About this time he'll be looking all over the asylum for me."

Captain Yates: "Here, Sauer, you've brought me two eggs and I only wanted one."
Sauer: "I know it, sir, but I didn't have the heart to separate them after all these years."

Major Jacob: "It looks like a storm. You had better stay and have dinner with us in the Mess Hall."
Fair Visitor: "Oh, thanks, but I don't think it is bad enough for that."

In football, it is GRIT.
In spinach, it is terrible.

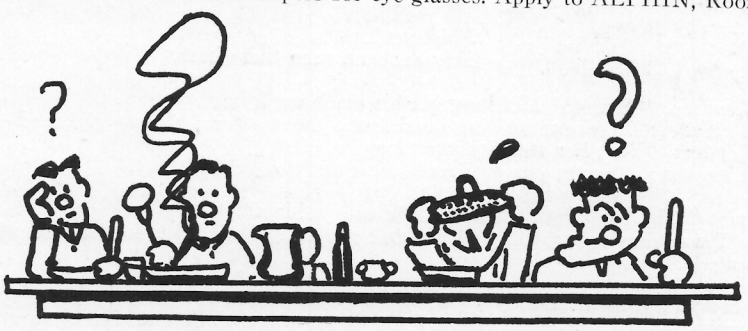

O. C.: "Put that hat on straight."
What We Would Like to Say: "Aw, go jump in a lake, you big ham. For two cents, I'd push your face to the back of your head."
What We Do Say: "Yes, sir, I forgot about it, sir; I'll straighten it right away, sir."

She was only the coal man's daughter, but, oh, boy, where she has bin!

Powell, S.: "I held a big party last night. Why didn't you come?"
Powell, J.: "I was holding a small party."

Girls go into everything with their eyes open these days—except a kiss.

GRUB DUTY

My General Orders are:

1. To take charge of all gravy and "spuds" in sight.
2. To watch my plate in a military manner, keeping always on the alert for any sausage that comes within my sight, smelling, or hearing.
3. To report all approaches of faculty officers to the cadet officer at the head of my table.
4. To reject all calls for best table.
5. To quit my table only when satisfied that there is nothing left.
6. To receive, but not pass on to the man who sits next to me, any meat, soup, or beans overlooked by the head and the foot of the table.
7. To talk to no one who asks for onions.
8. In case of fire from other tables, to fire back.
9. To allow no one to steal anything in the line of grub.
10. In any case not covered by instructions, to drink all I can hold.
11. To salute all chicken and peaches not canned.
12. To be especially watchful at the table, and during the time of eating, to challenge any one who gets more to eat than I do.

Payne, C., combs his hair each night before going to bed, because he's afraid he will meet the girl of his dreams.

O. D.: "You are late again this morning to B. R. C., Dudrow."
Dudrow: "Well, sir, when I looked in the mirror this morning, I could not see myself there. So, I thought I had gone to ranks. It was only some time afterwards that I discovered that the glass had dropped out of the frame."

Spengler: "Captain Willis, want to buy a camera?"
Captain Willis: "Sure, I'll give you a dollar for it."
S.: "Sold."
C. W.: "But you owe me a dollar."
S.: "What for?"
C. W.: "Don't you remember that suit of clothes that I sent out for you in my name?"
S.: "You're right. Here's the camera, and now we are square."
C. W.: "I sure hate to suck you in on such an uneven deal."
S.: "There's nothing uneven about that deal. The camera won't take pictures."

BATTLE CRY OF AN A. M. A. CADET

If I had it, you could have it; but you see I haven't got it.

Baker: "I've got a débutante tooth."
Webber: "How's that?"
Baker: "It's coming out."

Bew: "Since coming to A. M. A., I've smoked X number of cigarettes."
Spengler: "What kind are they?"
Bew: "Any given quantity."

A SHOW IN THREE SCEENES

He seen her.
She seen him.
Her husband seen them both.

First Keydet: "How did McClung get his black eye?"
Second Keydet: "He was waiting outside the theatre for a chorus girl, and——"
First Keydet: "Yes; her steady came along."
Second Keydet: "Nope; her grandson came out and beat him up."

Dudrow: "Why were you leaving so late today, May?"
May: "I was shaving myself, and couldn't get away until I'd talked myself into a haircut and shampoo."

Bowman: "Hey, look. Here's a piece of tin in my stew."
Hildebrand: "Sure, mechanization of the modern age. The machine is everywhere replacing the horse."

Captain Parkins: "Hey, Aleck, how was the hunting?"
Captain Dean: "Rotten, every time I aimed at a rabbit, another would get in the way and spoil my shot."

Hargreave (to young lady at a dance): "You know, when I look into a mirror, I can't help but think that I am good looking. I'd call that right much conceit, wouldn't you?"
She: "No. I'd call it a delusion of the mirror."

PSALM OF A PENALTY MAN

The O. C. is mine enemy; I shall not spare him.

He maketh me to walk through mud-puddles; he runneth me around the parade ground.

He weareth my soles; he maketh the file closers to report me for his sake.

Yea, though I walk with the utmost precision and seriousness, I still fear evil: for he is with me; his reports and his fists, they worry me.

He maketh a fall of me in the presence of mine enemies; he calleth my head a billiard ball; his mouth runneth over.

Surely demerits and duty shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the guard house forever.

U. S. is going dry;
Horrible, you think;
But God made women;
What care we for drink?

Barnes: "Why is it that women learn to swim more readily than men?"
Fitch: "Easy, boy, easy. Who wants to teach a man to swim?"

The Sunday school teacher had been telling her class about the benefits of being good.
"Where do good little girls go when they die?"
"To heaven," was the prompt reply.
"And where do the bad girls go?"
"To the depot to see the traveling men come in."

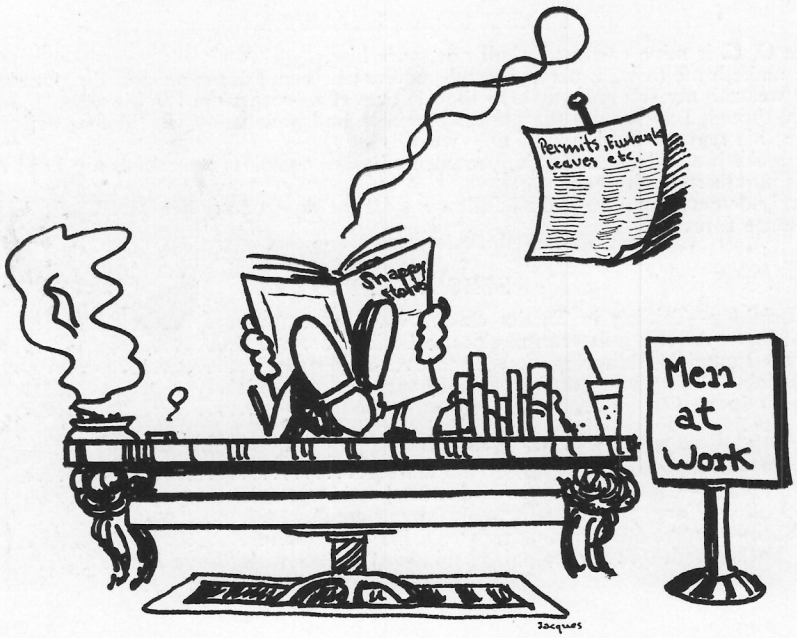

"You surely are fresh," said the hen as she laid the egg.

She: "Stop! "Please don't do that; stop! Do you hear me? Stop!"
Barnes: "What do you think you're doing, writing a telegram?"

She: "Whatchagotinthatpackidge?"
He: "Sabook."
She: "Wassanaimuvitt?"
He: "Sadickshumnery fullanaims. Mother's gonnagetapleecedogg anagotagetanaim-furrim."

"What Gillette him do it for?"
"He was Ever Ready."
"The little brat, I Auto Strop him."

Bowman: "I am a man of some calibre."
Moffett: "Yeh, you're a big bore, all right."

IF I WERE COMMANDANT

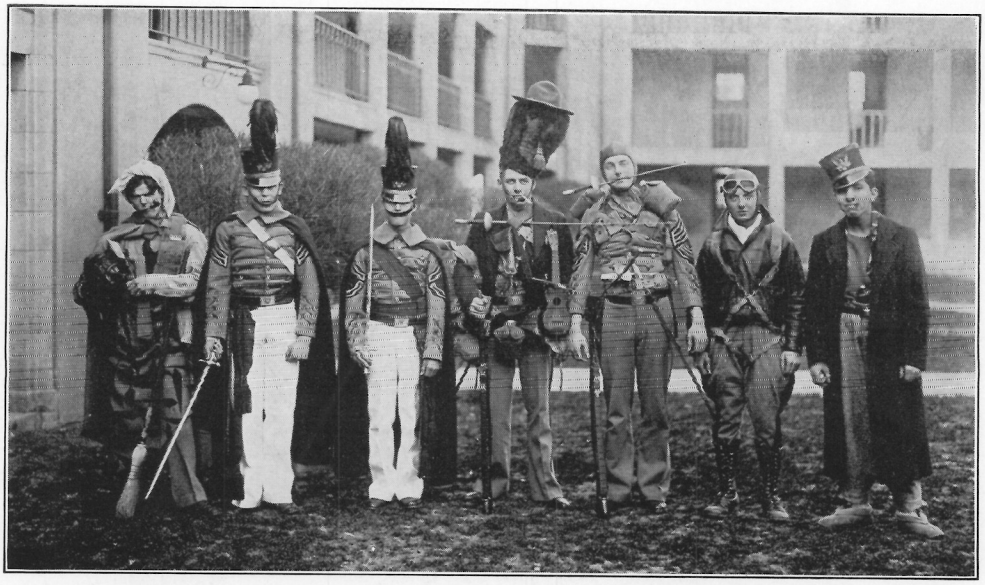

If I were in charge of A. M. A.,
There'd be less working, and lots more play;
Instead of reveille every day,
We'd lie in bed and there we'd stay;
If I were commandant.

There'd be no foolish rules to break,
There's be no silly packs to make;
And as a treat for old times' sake,
In the mess-hall, we'd have porterhouse steak
If I were commandant.

There'd be a movie every night,
Where one could yell with all his might;
In the court-yard, it would be all right,
To hurl a bomb of dynamite,
If I were commandant.

Things like this seem strange,
To have a waitress in the Post Exchange;
And all you'd have to do is speak,
To make a trip home once a week;
If I were commandant.

There'd be no study hall and such,
Nor drills, and things we hate so much;
But would your family play the fool,
And send you boys up here to school;
IF I WERE COMMANDANT???

UNANIMOUS

1871-1931
Diamond Jubilee Year

When asked what should be a young man's first investment, every man in a group of nationally prominent bankers and business men unhesitatingly answered:

"LIFE INSURANCE"

Their opinion will undoubtedly be warmly shared by the majority of banking and business executives known to A. M. A. cadets and their families.

No man, once confronted with the numerous responsibilities of life that follow school or college years, ever regretted the Life Insurance in which he invested as a young man. Such a man's only regret is that he did not, or could not, take more in youth, when he was insurable and annual deposits were down to the minimum.

IN PUBLIC SERVICE SINCE 1852

Seventy-eight years ago the Ithaca Gas Light Company, oldest property in the Associated System first engaged in the manufacture and distribution of GAS. Thirty years later, when electric lighting was made available, Rochester, New York, had the first central station among the properties now in the Associated System.

The Associated Gas and Electric Company, incorporated in 1906, was one of the first five public utilities holding companies in the United States.

The School Annual

WE DO not think—not publicly, at least—that we are the only people who print school annuals properly. Many printers do as good work as we, and a few do better, perhaps. But those that do better, charge a great deal more. We believe we are the second largest printers of annuals in Virginia. We know that year after year we print the same books, which indicates that our customers like our work. Furthermore we usually do any new annual that is put out in our territory, which indicates that our work is appreciated where we are best known. We always strive to carry out intelligently and in good taste the theme a staff selects. "Intelligence," "good taste," what wonderful words are these when applied to an annual. They mean that the printer is to enter into the spirit of the work and transfer to the printed page the vision of beauty pictured in the mind of the editor. They mean that he is to guard the staff against the visionary, the gaudy, and the needlessly expensive, by constructive and conscientious advice.
